Councillors warn police station front desk closure will send out the wrong message

COUNCILLORS have warned that the potential closure of Bridport police station's front desk sends out the wrong message to people about the role of police in their community.

They are encouraging residents to put forward their thoughts and concerns on the review of counter service provision, which is taking place across the whole Dorset Police force area.

Proposed changes, which could see the Bridport front desk withdrawn or operate with reduced opening hours, is part of a cost-saving exercise which Dorset Police have said could save them approximately £500,000.

Ros Kayes, district councillor for Bridport North, said that she doesn't believe there will be enough investment to make other means of contact with police, such as via the telephone, a suitable alternative to the enquiry desk.

She said: "Police station front desk support is the point of access as far as the public are concerned. A closed police station front end has a huge psychological effect on a community. It sends a strong message that 'We are not open for business'.

"If it is really true that the public usually access the police by phone, then the only way I would accept the loss of a front desk is if there was a massive investment in the phone system and possibly development of internet enquiries too. But I don't think they will make such an investment.

"Why not equip the front desk as an office so that admin

by Benjamin Parker

support staff can double up as the main interface with the public when people do call in? That would make nearly the same savings as closure and retain the link with the public which, once lost, will be gone forever."

It is important for residents to make their views known as people do mention this issue to her, said Ms Kayes.

She added: "Can I urge everyone who feels strongly about this to reply to the consultation - make your feelings known. There is a very real risk we will lose this service forever."

According to the police, over 75 per cent of people prefer to call them using the non-emergency number 101, or make enquiries using the Dorset Police website.

A spokesman for Dorset Police said that the cost of running the front desk in Bridport, which is staffed between 9am and 5pm from Tuesday to Saturday, is £33,200 per annum in salary and related staffing costs, such as national insurance contributions.

They added that in 2012 the enquiry office received 3,663 calls, which averages as just over 14 visitors a day. This figure includes visits where a police response is not required, such as providing people with directions.

Bridport town councillor Karl Wallace believes that the front desk plays an important role for the people in the town.

He said: "I see the reduction or closure of the front office in Bridport is the first step in the continuing police cuts from the Tory-Lib Dem government, with further reductions to come.

"To me the front desk is the commonest face that people see and interact with the police, so is the most important because it's front of house.

"This will lead to further cuts, and in time possible closure due to saving money, and eventually not needing local stations but having large centralised police stations such as Weymouth and Dorchester."

Concern has also been expressed by West Dorset District councillor David Tett, who said: "This is chipping away at yet another public service, a service that is most important and essential in times of need and where help is readily to hand and on ones doorstep."

Previously Chief Constable Debbie Simpson, who put forward these proposals with Dorset Police and Crime Commissioner Martyn Underhill, has acknowledged that changes to local policing will create considerable debate but she highlighted the financial situation facing the force.

She said: "I would like to reassure members of the public that no final decisions have been made regarding station desk office provision in Dorset. However, we have to meet a very challenging budgetary situation and we are committed to providing the best possible service while reflecting true demand and value for money.

"I would also like to stress that the potential closure of station desks does not mean the closure of the police stations themselves. The force continues to ensure that there is a policing footprint in every town in Dorset."

As the View from Bridport went to press, Dorset Police were unable to confirm what would happen to staff who work on the front desks if the proposed changes went ahead.

To give feedback during this consultation, which is due to end in December, people can email consultation@dorset.pnn.police.uk or write to the Police and Crime Commissioner office at the Dorset Police headquarters in Winfrith.

SANDY West, 64, is the community life champion at Asda supermarket in Weymouth.

She was born and went to school in Plymouth before moving to Liverpool when her father came out of the Royal Navy. She worked as a proof reader for the Liverpool Jewish Gazette which she said "being from a Welsh Catholic-Liverpool Irish Prody family was a bit of an odd job!"

Sandy married in the same Liverpool registry office that world famous Beatle, John Lennon, got married in and moved to Portland on her wedding day, July 29th, 1967.

She has now lived on the island for 46 years and is a borough councillor and former town mayor of Portland. She has worked at Asda, Weymouth, for 14 years.

■ WHY do you live on Portland?

Because Portland is the most beautiful place with a great community and community spirit. I also feel proud that it is the base for the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy because I am very keen on sailing.

■ WHERE do you go for your holidays?

I holiday in this country, Birmingham, Liverpool, Plymouth or I just take day trips from Portland because there is so much to see round here. I love walking and the sculpture park.

■ WHAT is your favourite time of the year?

Autumn because it is a mellow time. Colours are constantly changing and it is a lovely time before winter sets in.

■ WHAT is your favourite film?

Gone With The Wind. I have seen it 124 times and love it. If not that then All Quiet on the Western Front, the original black and white one, not the remakes.

■ WHAT is the scariest thing that has ever happened to you?

When I was younger my oldest brother locked me in a cupboard at night and told my mum and dad that I had gone to bed. I was terrified because then I was frightened of the dark.

■ IF you could live your life again what would you be?

I would be an army nurse. That was one of my ambitions, but I got married instead.

■ WHICH three people would you invite to your dream dinner party?

Nelson Mandela because I was inspired by his fight for freedom, the Dalai Lama because I like the warm feeling and peacefulness of Buddhism and Dawn French because she is a Plymouth girl and very funny.

■ WHAT would you do if you won the Lottery?

I would give some to charity, some to my family and then I would go mental and just buy a shoe shop and spend all day trying them on because I love shoes. Then I'd give them to charity when I got fed up with them.

■ WHAT do you hope the future holds?

I would like to see world peace and I would also hope that I am able to carry on having as much fun as I do now.

Christmas Cheer competition

SCHOOLCHILDREN from Bridport and the surrounding area are being encouraged to design a Christmas tree decoration as part of the Bridport Christmas Cheer festivities.

With no size restrictions, the only rule for entries is that the decoration needs to be able to hang from a tree, as the winning decorations from each category will be placed on the Christmas tree in Bucky Doo Square on the day of the Christmas Cheer event, which this year is Wednesday, December 4th.

The categories are split by age, with one for children under eight-years-old and one for children aged nine-years-old and above. The winners in each class will be presented with book tokens on the festive evening.

Entries will be judged by Councillor Maggie Ray, Mayor of Bridport, and each one will be displayed in Bridport's Tourist Information Centre.

The deadline for the competition is 12pm on Saturday, November 30th. Each decoration needs to be delivered to the Tourist Information Centre by this time, by Benjamin

along with the name, age and a contact number of the entrant.

Bridport's annual Christmas Cheer offers a wide range of festivities and attractions around the town, with street stalls, a farmers market, arts and crafts, and local food.

This year's event opens at 4pm with school choirs singing in Bucky Doo Square.

Father Christmas will be in his grotto outside Bridport Arts Centre for children to visit, and the town's mayor will switch on the Christmas lights at 6pm.

The Cheer committee, which is made up of volunteers who live and work in Bridport, are still looking for people to help with the event.

If anyone is able to help they can contact Terri Foxwell on 01308 424901 or email bridportchristmascheer@gmail.com

Local businesses back footpath improvements

THE generosity of local businesses meant improvements to a Burton Bradstock footpath were possible, Dorset County Council has said.

The footpath, situated to the west of Burton Bradstock, has been fitted with four, self-closing gates, which means that walkers can now access the beach from Barr Lane without having to cross a stile. In a statement Dorset County Council said the landowners, Freshwater Beach Holiday Park and Manor Farm, had been "instrumental" in making this addition to the path happen, by allowing access to their land and clearing vegetation along the path.

Ronald Coatsworth, county councillor for the Bride Valley, said: "This is a great example of partnership working. This will make a big difference to locals and tourists alike. By working together we were able to produce something that will be a massive benefit to the community for very little cost."

Dorset County Council's Rights of Way team supplied the gates, which were then installed by staff from Freshwater Beach Holiday Park. For information about the 4,700 footpaths in Dorset visit www.dorsetforyou.com/rightsofway

Festive evening in Broadwindsor

AN award-winning community shop is gearing up for a festive tasting and shopping evening this Friday.

The event takes place from 7pm in Comrades Hall, with a chance to sample some yuletide products, and an opportunity to place orders for Christmas hampers.

Entry to the Christmas event is free, with mulled wine and mince pies available.

Broadwindsor Community Stores, which was award the people's project award in the Dorset Villages Competition, is going from strength to strength according to those running it.

Volunteers at the shop work on a rota to keep the facility going, under the direction of shop manager Sue Williams. For more information telephone 01308 867922.

CHRISTMAS PLAY FUNDRAISER

HALF of the profits from a new Burton Bradstock play will be going to a cancer charity.

The latest production from the Burton Bradstock Players – entitled Christmas is a Time For... – is described by organisers as a mixture of comedy and music in which audience participation is actively encouraged.

As well as portion of the profits from the tickets, the audience will also be able to give to Cancer Research UK through a collection at the shows.

Janet Tolputt, chairman of the Burton Bradstock Players, said: "Without giving too much of the plot away, Christmas is a Time For... is an evening of comedy and song, starting with a one-act comedy and finishing with musical entertainment, including the singing of popular, well known songs.

"The audience will be encouraged to join in with the singing if they wish.

"This promises to be a very enjoyable evening, with the added bonus that 50 per cent of all profits will be donated to the local branch of Cancer Research.

"We did a similar production two years ago, again for charity, and that was very well received by all."

Tickets for the show, which is being performed at Burton Bradstock Village Hall from Thursday 28th – Saturday, November 30th, are available from the village post office or from Janet Tolputt on 01308 898041. Doors open at 7pm, with the curtains up at 7:30pm.

Tickets cost £9 for adults and £6 for under 16s, and includes a ham and cheese ploughman's supper.

Bridport crime round-up

THIEVES have stolen a greenhouse from the driveway of a property in Drew Close at Bradpole.

The Billy 04000 Lincoln Greenhouse was still in its as delivered, flat packed condition and awaiting construction.

It was taken sometime between mid-day on Thursday last week and mid-day on Wednesday, November 13th. Crime ref: C:13:D: 047801.

● A black Vauxhall Astra 3 door GTC SRI CDT 1.9 sustained a dented bonnet and had its rear washer nozzle ripped out of its mounting point.

This occurred between 11am on Tuesday 12th and its discovery by 11:15am the following morning. Crime ref: C:13:D:047662.

● Police are also investigating criminal damage sustained by a Porsche in South Mill Lane and a Mercedes in Lansdowne Road, both of which occurred around midnight on Saturday and early Sunday morning.

● Thieves have ruined a well established holly bush after cutting it in two and stealing half of it.

The bush had its 8 inch diameter trunk sawn through and the road side half which was laden with red berries taken.

It took place sometime between 5pm on Friday, November 15th and its discovery at 0900am on Sunday morning from the garden of a house in Broad Lane, Bridport.

Crime ref: C:13:D:048110.

● A bright yellow 16ft Seado Jet ski with a grey protective cover along with its boarded A-frame trailer and its associated locking devices was stolen from the garden of a dwelling in Barrowfield Close at Burton Bradstock.

This happened between 9pm last Thursday, November 14th and its discovery as missing the following morning at 10:10am. Crime ref: C:13:D:047960

● An engineer has had some of his tools stolen from a Nissan Navara pick-up parked near the A3066 south of Melplash.

The theft occurred sometime in November and was only discovered on Friday 15th.

Items stolen include a battery starter power pack, jump leads, towing strap, car Jack and a selection of hand tools.

A nearby horse box had its fuel cap removed but no fuel was left in it to steal. Crime ref: C:13:D:07953.

Call the police on 101 if you can help.

Bogus charity collectors

POLICE are warning Bridport residents about potentially fraudulent charity collectors operating in the town.

Last week, Bridport police received reports of people collecting for a children's charity in West Street, which was in fact a registered company selling leaflets.

PCSO Luke White said: "Due to the pictures and writing on the collecting bucket, the public may believe that they are donating their money to a genuine charity, but are instead giving their money to a commercial enterprise."

Dorset Trading Standards are keen to hear from people who may have been approached by these vendors, or who may have given money believing them to be genuine charity collectors. All street charity collector need to have a licence from West Dorset District Council, added PCSO White.

Dorset Trading Standards can be contacted on 01305 252214 if people have concerns about the legitimacy of a charity collector.

AA Awareness Month

A SPECIAL meeting is taking place in Bridport this week as part of Alcoholics Anonymous Awareness Month.

On Monday, November 25th, an open meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous will be held at the Friends Meeting House in South Street at 7:45pm.

The open meetings are a chance for people to see what Alcoholics Anonymous is all about, and to dispel any myths people may have.

They can be visited by anyone with an interest in problem drinkers, including professionals, non-alcoholics and people who think their drinking habits are not that bad.

Police highlight risk of bag and purse thefts over Christmas

SHOPPING RISK: PCSO Pete Smith, left, with the local Crime Prevention Panel chairman Sally Parker and posters highlighting ways to prevent handbag and purse theft

POLICE in Bridport have launched a campaign highlighting the risk of bag and purse thefts after a number of incidents in the town.

With the Christmas shopping rush fast approaching they are advising shoppers to remain vigilant in busy crowds, and the Bridport Safer Neighbourhood Team is working with volunteers from the Crime Prevention Panel to prevent anymore members of the public from becoming victims.

The warning comes after a number of handbags and purses have been stolen from shoppers in Morrisons supermarket in West Bay Road. The victims had left their bags unattended, either on the floor in the café or on shopping trolleys.

Three incidents of theft occurred in just three hours at the store, and police in Bridport have already started work to advise the public on simple but effective ways to reduce this type of crime.

PCSO Pete Smith, of the Bridport Town Safer Neighbourhood Team, said: "We will be in the town as well as outside supermarkets issuing useful advice on how to reduce the chances of becoming a victim of theft."

"We would strongly advise not to leave handbags unattended particularly on shopping trolleys but where possible to wear the handbag across the front of the body and to make sure that the bag is zipped so not to display items of value."

"We would also advise that with Christmas ap-

by Benjamin Parker

proaching that the town and the supermarkets are likely to get very busy and to be mindful of those around you in crowded conditions as this is when offenders are most active."

PCSO Smith also advised that when people are out shopping they should not leave items on display in unattended vehicles, and he added that the most expensive items should be purchased last so that any potential loss is kept to a minimum.

A number of posters have already been placed around the town in some of the bigger shops, and police officers will be handing out leaflets promoting the use of 'purse alarms'.

On the release of a pin, these small devices emit a high-pitched sound should someone attempt to remove a purse from a handbag.

Sally Parker, chairman of Bridport, Beaminstor and Lyme Regis Crime Prevention Panel, reiterated PCSO Smith's advice on ways to avoid becoming a victim of crime.

To purchase a purse alarm get in touch with your nearest Safer Neighbourhood Team by calling the non-emergency 101 number.

Church fundraiser for Syrian children

THE plight of Syrian children both in and out of the war torn country was the focus of a charity event in Bridport.

An afternoon tea session was held at Bridport Christian Fellowship church, in King's Lane, with money raised going to the Barnabas Fund, a Christian organisation which helps those across the world who are suffering oppression or persecution.

Judith Robinson-Martin, who organised the afternoon tea event, said she was happy with the number of people who turned up to the first event they've organised for this cause.

Speaking during the afternoon, she said: "I didn't know how many people we'd get coming in but I'm very pleased. Whatever we raise I'll be happy but we're hoping for £100 or more.

"Like most people I've seen on television the way Syrian children have been treated, it's horrible. Things like babies so traumatised they can't stop shaking.

"This fund gives them the necessities to live, such as clothing, clean water and schooling."

The event raised £100 for the charity and the church may hold other events to raise money for Syrian children.

More information on the Barnabas Fund can be found by visiting www.barnabasfund.org

Lions on the ground in the Philippines

■ I'M SURE everyone was shocked by the ferocity of the storm which hit the Philippines and a sense of helplessness sets in.

Lions Clubs International Foundation was able to respond immediately with a grant of US$100,000 later increased to US $500,000.

There are 380 Lions Clubs in the Philippines, four in Cebu and one in Tacloban with a total membership over 12,600.

We do not know how many fatalities have occurred amongst them but Lions on the ground are busy helping where they can.

The funds sent will help to provide basic needs of food, water, clothing and medicine as well as provide long-term disaster relief efforts and reconstruction.

Lions Clubs throughout the world are now being asked to donate funds; every penny given will be used to provide further help.

The Lions Clubs International Foundation works with UNICEF, WHO and UNESCO.

If you would be interested in becoming part of this international organisation, please contact Peter on 01308 424536 or John 01308 456904 or website www.bridportlionsclub.org

VICKI OWERS,
PRO Lions Club of Bridport,

■ BRIT Valley Rotary Club would like to thank the people of Bridport for their magnificent response to our collection for the Philippines Disaster Relief held on Friday evening and Saturday.

Thanks to your wonderful generosity we raised £2,608.72, all of which will go to the Shelterbox/ Waterbox organizations.

We are still receiving contributions to help alleviate the plight of the people of the Philippines, and we would be delighted to receive a donation from those who may have missed our collection.

Cheques made payable to 'Brit Valley Rotary Club' should be sent to: The Treasurer, 11 Northover Close, Burton Bradstock, DT6 4RX, or handed to any Brit Valley Rotarian.

On a personal note I was very touched, and would like to record my gratitude to the kind Filipino lady who brought me a cup of tea whilst I was standing in West Street on Saturday morning.

PATRICK STOKES,
President, Rotary Club of Brit Valley

Police called out to traffic collision

POLICE were called to a road traffic collision just outside of Bridport on Saturday, November 9th.

The incident, which occurred on the eastbound lane of the A35 near Askers Road House, was reported to police at 10.49am.

According to Dorset police, the collision involved just one vehicle, a blue Ford Focus registered to a man in Bridport.

The ambulance was asked to attend as one of the occupants, reportedly the female driver of the vehicle, suffered a bang to the head, said a Dorset police spokesman.

Charity tea party in West Bay

A HOTEL and restaurant in West Bay will play host for a charity tea party this weekend.

The Quarterdeck Tavern, at the Durbeyfield Guest House, is holding the tea party, in aid of Julia's House children's hospice, in a marquee located in the car park.

Entry to the event, which starts at 3pm on Sunday, November 24th, is £5 per person.

Makers market returns

SUNDAY will see the return of Eype Makers Market as shopping for Christmas presents starts to build momentum.

According to the organisers, the market has become a popular fixture in the West Dorset pre-Christmas shopping calendar, with a selection of work from local artists and crafts people.

This year the event will accommodate over 50 artisans with a range of different products and skills on offer, including stained glass, quilting, willow work and hand-made books.

As well as a shopping experience, the market is also a chance to raise funds for local good causes; this year the charities supported include Julia's House Children's Hospice, The Wallbridge Trust and Heartbeat House.

There will be demonstrations of pottery, woodcarving and basket making.

The market is now celebrating its fifth year as a Christmas shopping attraction, and it has moved to the function rooms at Highlands End Holiday Park, instead of being held at St Peter's Church in Eype.

Pauline Bale, chief organiser of the event, said: "We have always been very busy and very full, whatever the weather, but decided, as we have naturally grown, that Highlands End provided an ideal, larger location this year, with three adjoining decorated rooms to provide a festive atmosphere, as well as easy parking and access. Our thanks to Martin and Vanessa Cox for offering the venue and being so helpful."

The Christmas market will be open from 10am to 4pm on Sunday, November 24th. Parking and entry is free, with refreshments available throughout the day.

Keep your fuel safe

POLICE are advising people to make an extra effort to keep fuel safe as the weather begins to get colder.

This warning comes after thieves broke into a secure compound in West Bay and stole a gas cylinder during the early hours of Monday morning.

A 17kg butane cylinder was taken between 12:10am and the 8:15am. PCSO John Burton said: "With cold weather now setting in please take extra care to keep your fuel safe. Gas cylinders are easily stolen unless you take adequate steps to secure them."

"A locked reinforced secure cage is recommended along with good quality hasps and padlocks, and alarm the door to alert you to the presence of intruders. Contact your Safer Neighbourhood Team for advice on protecting your fuel from thieves this winter."

Anyone with information on Monday's gas cylinder theft can contact police on the non-emergency 101 number quoting crime reference C:13:D:048360.

RNLI fundraiser makes more than £1,000

YULETIDE OFFERINGS | Anne and Martin Newbury at their RNLI Christmas shop

A CHRISTMAS charity fair raised over £1,000 on Saturday morning.

Held at the Public Hall in Beaminster, the makeshift Christmas shop sold items to get people ready for Christmas, with proceeds going to the Royal National Lifeboat Institution (RNLI).

Among the items for sale were Christmas cards, calendars and RNLI-branded goods.

Martin and Anne Newbury, who are both souvenir secretaries for the Bridport and district RNLI branch, were pleased with the response to the charity shopping morning.

Martin said: "It did very well and took a large amount. I'm absolutely thrilled with the support from local people as well as the local businesses. We'd advertised it around town but it was good to see people coming in from Broadwindsor and Corscombe."

"This is the first one we've held and we were pleasantly surprised with the amount donated to us by businesses in and around the town. We're delighted."

They will be having a stall at the Combined Charities Christmas fair in Bridport at the start of December, added Mr Newbury.

Bridport does its bit for Pudsey

A SHOP in Bridport raised over £1,100 for Children in Need with an eye-watering experience for some staff members.

On Friday a number of male employees of retail chain Boots rolled up their trousers and gritted their teeth during a leg waxing session at the Bridport branch, in West Street.

Ian Gatrall, the store pharmacist in Bridport, and Ashley Littlewood-Miller, manager of the Dorchester branch, joined Boots area manager Chris Couchman on the beautician's table.

With Children in Need raising a record-breaking £31 million on Friday evening, expectations were also exceeded in Bridport, with the Boots target set at £750.

Mandy Foster-Grellis, store manager in Bridport, said: "Every year we support Children in Need; it is a charity close to our hearts. Last year we raised £500 and this year we hoped to hit £750 but it's fantastic that we made over £1,100.

"I'd like to say thank you to Faye Hubbard who came in to wax the legs, lots of people were looking at that as they walked in.

"There's a real community spirit when it comes to things like this so thank you to those

by Benjamin

who have supported us this year."

As well as leg waxing, staff came to work in onesies and pyjamas and held a raffle to raise additional funds.

Sarah Horton, who works in the Bridport store but had a day off on Friday, came into work and spent eight hours on an exercise bike outside the shop.

A Step Ahead hair salon, also in West Street, raised almost £200 by selling cakes and biscuits in the salon, as well as sending members of staff around the town to raise extra.

A number of schools around Bridport did their bit for the charity.

St Catherine's Primary School held a non-school uniform day, raising £180 in total. Burton Bradstock Primary School took part in a number of activities, including accessorising their school uniforms with spots, selling homemade chocolate Pudsey biscuits as well as treasure hunt to find a missing Pudsey. They managed to raise £220.

In Beaminster, Mountjoy School raised £85 for Children in Need.

Bridport turns back the clocks

■ HISTORY BOYS: Members of Stonewallers living history group on the Millennium Green

■ EXHIBITION OPENING: The Second World War exhibition was opened by Mayor of Bridport Maggie Ray, centre, who was accompanied by her husband Martin

■ DRESSED TO IMPRESS: Graham Haskall and Louise Arnold

PARTS of Bridport were transported back 70 years at the weekend to commemorate the town's role as hosts to American soldiers during the Second World War.

The bumper programme of events has been deemed a success by the organiser, Bridport history enthusiast Cheryl Ludgate, who said the aim was to make a little bit of money for charity and generate interest in the subject.

Ms Ludgate said: "I really enjoyed it. We could have had more people at the exhibition or at the dance but this is the first time we've done something like this so it went well. A few people couldn't make it as planned, which can't be helped, but we managed to attract people from as far as Hampshire and Wiltshire.

"One great thing was hearing all of the stories, some funny and some really quite sad. We've gained lots of leads to research and we will start looking into them."

In November 1943 the town saw the arrival of troops from the USA, who trained in the area for almost a year before leaving for D-Day in 1944.

To mark the occasion a two-day exhibition was held at Bridport Town Hall, complete with photographs of the period, people dressed in 1940s clothing and authentic equipment. British and American military Jeeps from the period were parked in Bucky Doo Square, and Devon-based vintage vocalist Sandy Sparkle entertained visitors on Sunday.

On Saturday evening a 1940s charity dance took place, which attracted more than 30 guests in 1940s dress. The evening, which also featured a raffle, raised over £100 for the Help for Heroes cause.

Ms Ludgate said she hoped that the weekend could capture the interest of younger people.

She said: "The people of Bridport put their hopes and dreams on hold when they went off to fight against tyranny in Europe. Many made the ultimate sacrifice and I don't think we should ever forget that.

"Hopefully things like this can interest young people and help them understand the history of their own town."

to WWII to honour US troops

by Benjamin Parker

Ms Ludgate wished to thank Elizabeth Gale, Robin Stapleton, the Rex Trevett Big Band, Bridport Museum and Bridport Town Council among many others who helped bring this event to fruition.

Throughout the weekend members of the Stonewallers history re-enactors were camped on the Millenium Green, portraying the US 29th Infantry Division as they prepared for battle on Omaha beach.

Darren Clarke, a member of the group, said: "It was great, Bridport is a beautiful place with so much history. If there was anything like this again we'd definitely be back."

"A little highlight for me was the dance on Saturday, I stood where James Cagney actually sang for the troops in Bridport during World War Two."

TV's Dan to give talk at Bridport hotel

AN event raising money for Bridport's Literary and Scientific Institute restoration project will take place tomorrow evening (Thursday, November 21st) at The Bull Hotel.

A talk by art historian and television presenter Dan Cruickshank will be followed by a charity auction, which will be held in the hotel's ballroom.

Mr Cruickshank, known for presenting the BBC series Around the World in 80 Treasures, will talk about his special interest in architecture, the architecture of Bridport, as well as the qualities of the Literary and Scientific Institute building in East Street.

His talk will describe Bridport as an example of a Dorset town that reveals the "visual delights of the happy and harmonious marriage between domestic architecture and necessary monuments."

The charity auction contains a number of interesting and exciting lots, including a luxury weekend for two at The Bull Hotel, two backstage passes for Ardal O'Hanlon's show at The Electric Palace, a drive in a Ferrari F40, and original artwork by Boo Mallinson.

All proceeds from the auction will go towards the restoration project.

A full list of lots is available on the news page at www.bridportadt.org.uk or from the reception at The Bull Hotel.

Bids can be made in advance by calling Crystal Johnson on 07968 577867 or by emailing crystal@bridportadt.org.uk

Richard Cooper, owner of The Bull Hotel said: "We are delighted to be hosting this event."

"The restoration of the Literary and Scientific Institute is an incredibly important project for the town, and one which we believe the whole community should get behind and support, in whatever way they can."

Tickets to the evening with Dan Cruickshank, which takes place tomorrow at 7pm, are available in advance from The Bull Hotel.

Tickets cost £40, and include supper and a glass of wine from Furleigh Estate; £30 from every ticket goes to the Literary and Scientific Institute project.

Cheque this out

A DORSET charity has been presented with a cheque as Clive Bath's presidency of the Rotary Club of Bridport came to an end.

Mr Bath, who took on the role of president last year, chose Weldmar Hospicecare as his charity.

He has now stepped down and marked the occasion by presenting a cheque for £1,100 to the charity.

We was joined by the Rotary Club of Bridport's new president and the president-elect.

Weldmar Hospicecare Trust

cares for patients with cancer and other progressive conditions, such as motor neurone disease, and who require specialist help. Patients in North, South and West Dorset have a seamless service, whether they require care and advice in the comfort of their own homes, in the day hospices or the inpatient unit at Joseph Weld Hospice in Dorchester.

The club has a particular interest in the work of the charity as during Mr Bath's year as president one of the Bridport Rotarians passed away, having been cared for by Weldmar Hospice.

A special summer lunch in his memory was held to raise additional funds.

Mr Bath said: "I am delighted to be able to present Weldmar with a cheque for £1,100 to help towards providing vital care to patients in our local communities."

Members of the Rotary Club of Bridport are pictured presenting the cheque to Caroline Nickinson, director of fundraising at Weldmar Hospicecare Trust.

Colfox goes back to the Fifties for its annual production

THE Sir John Colfox School chose Brenda Bly, Teen Detective, a little known American musical, for their annual production this year, writes C. Wilson.

Set in a school in 1950s America, it was a comic look at the detective and teen genres – think Nancy Drew meets St Trinian's.

Under the excellent direction of Miss Wrigley, Colfox students once again created a really wonderful show.

This funny and exciting musical really showed off the talents of our students, with striking performances across the board.

Clever use of projection meant the sets were detailed and offered the opportunity for some visual jokes.

The students were extremely confident in the choreographed dances, and the choreography was appropriately comical as well as being extremely polished.

Musical director Brian Hocking brought together a really talented band for the musical numbers, and all the actors handled their musical pieces with conviction and a huge amount of talent.

Tamlin Morgan as Brenda Bly gave a confident performance of a young girl trying to strike a balance between her relationship and her desire to solve the latest community crime.

Mathew Lockett was the long-suffering boyfriend, Buddy, and played his scenes with Brenda with sensitivity, while he and his best friend Stu, played by Harry Lockett, provided some hilarious comedy moments.

Lucy Taylor created some wonderfully quirky comedy moments as Vera van Strander, the bitter one-time actress turned headmistress.

It was really encouraging to see how every actor contributed fully to the action on stage, giving an all-round performance of an extremely high standard.

Every aspect of this show served to enhance the overall experience, so congratulations are due to everybody involved in this production, from costume and make-up to set construction and sound engineering. Brenda Bly, Teen Detective really was a production that Colfox can be proud of.

Christmas in LYME REGIS

Christmas illuminations to light up town

THE festive season in Lyme Regis will kick off on Saturday, November 30th with the switch-on of the Christmas lights – widely thought to be among the best on the south coast.

A whole afternoon of festive fun will be held in the town centre before the “big moment”, including the unveiling of Windows Wonderland, with shop fronts of several businesses being professionally painted to depict the “12 Days of Christmas” carol. Each scene will contain a hidden letter which, when put together, will spell out a Christmas phrase. Shoppers will be encouraged to work out the phrase and enter a grand prize draw. There will also be the chance to win a Love Lyme hamper in a raffle, a Santa’s grotto at the Royal Lion and a Christmas hat competition.

The annual Christmas lantern-making workshop will be held in the Baptist Church Hall from 3pm with judging at 4.30pm. This will be followed by the Christmas Lantern parade, led down Broad Street by Father Christmas and Lyme Regis Majorettes at 5.15pm.

The big switch-on will take place around the tree at the bottom of Broad Street at 5.30pm. This year, five-year-old Amelie Austin will do the honours in memory of her great-grandmother, the late Barbara Austin MBE, who first organised the parade in 2000 and fundraised to turn the Christmas lights into the current spectacular.

Barbara died shortly after last year’s switch-on but the Christmas Lights Committee have continued to work hard in her absence to raise the necessary funds for this year’s illuminations. The display will include a special candle light on Bell Cliff in memory of Barbara.

Christine Lovell, who has led the organisation of this year’s display, said: “This is a poignant year for us all as we remember Barbara, who started this parade 13 years ago. In her memory we have commissioned a special light to be lit along with this year’s illuminations by her great granddaughter, Amelie, assisted by other members of the Austin family.”

SPECTACULAR SIGHT: Lyme’s Christmas lights are thought to be among the best on the south coast.

The Christmas season will continue the following weekend, Saturday, December 7th, with the second Great Lyme Regis Christmas Pudding Race in aid of Cancer Research UK. The wacky event, to be held from 11am to 2pm on Marine Parade, will be opened by West Country television and radio star Judi Spiers and will see teams in

Christmas in LYME REGIS

Driver Golf

Fore everything golf this Christmas

YOUR local golf pro shop at Lyme Regis Golf Club is open to the general public as well as members so is the place to go to get the perfect Christmas gift for the golf fanatic. As always, there are loads of great promotions running in the shop at the moment and they won't be beaten on price with their price-match promise, so pop in and have a look around. There really is some cracking deals at the moment; if you're struggling for gift ideas, why not buy a personalised gift voucher or, as lots of people did last year, why not buy a series of golf lessons? Listed below are the most popular packages, but they can of course tailor them to your requirements.

Lesson Packages 2013/2014

- Par Package: 3 x 30 min golf lessons - £55
- Birdie Package: 6 x 30 min golf lessons - £100
- Eagle Package: 2 x 9-hole playing lessons, plus 6 x 30 min lessons - £150
- Albatross Package: lessons for a year (12 max), plus 2 x 9-hole playing lessons - £199

Duncan Driver is your local P.G.A. Professional; please feel free to call him with any enquiries on 01297 443822 (Option 2) or pop in and see him in the shop.

Serendip

SERENDIP: the ancient name for Sri Lanka, before Ceylon and meaning 'Treasure House'. True to its name, Serendip at 11 Broad Street really is a treasure house of books – and so much more besides.

There are gift ideas galore; a super selection of quality greetings cards and wrappings; great-value Naxos CDs; Christmas cards, calendars and diaries; jigsaws; games – all of which come with a FREE same day delivery service.

We keep an average of 12000 book titles in stock, most others being available through our 24-hour ordering service. Being independent, we are free to select from the 1000 or so books published in the UK each week from any publisher, in order to provide our customers with a wide range of choice. Our team is always happy to give advice and share their enthusiasm for reading with customers.

When it comes to customer service, we strive constantly to 'go the extra mile' and perhaps most of all, we pride ourselves on being your local independent bookshop.

We love the festive season here at Serendip, and we would like to take the opportunity it provides to offer all of our customers huge thanks for their loyalty, and pass on our sincere good wishes for a joyful Christmas, and a peaceful New Year.

Christmas in LYME REGIS

Festive fun all December

Christmas costume compete across a wacky obstacle course whilst carrying a Christmas pudding and competing other festive tasks on the way.

The pudding race will be augmented by a Christmas food market on the Marine Parade, Father Christmas pulled along on a sleigh by live reindeer, appearances from children's favourites Mickey and Minnie Mouse, Victorian carol singers and live music from the town's chief crooner Ben Kapur. For further details and information on how to take part, visit www.xmaspuddrace-lymeregis.co.uk

Matinee and evening performances of the family classic "A Christmas Carol" by the Lyme Regis Dramatic Society at The Marine Theatre on the same day.

Saturday, December 7th will also host "Small Business Saturday", a nationwide campaign organised by the Federation of Small Businesses and designed to encourage shoppers to "shop small" for Christmas this year. The recently formed Lyme Regis Business Group is asking all local traders to participate in the campaign and make a special effort on the day with added attractions and displays to remind shoppers of the variety and quality of the town's independent shops and galleries.

On Saturday, December 8th Lyme Bay Chorale will host their Christmas concert in St Michael's Church from 2.30pm Tickets costing £12 are available from A Kind of Blue, 7 Broad Street, and include a post-concert buffet.

Lyme Regis Town Band will hold their annual Christmas concert at the Woodmead Halls on Friday, December 13th which this year will be free of charge, starting at 8pm. The band will also be performing Carols in the Street from 10.30am to 12.30pm in Broad Street on Saturday, December 21st and on Christmas Eve.

Saturday, December 14th will be "Love Lyme Retail Therapy Day", also organised by the business group. Local residents and visitors will be given a chance to see what Lyme has to uniquely offer, with many businesses offering special discounts and local pubs and restaurants providing new festive menus and Christmas-themed drinks.

The Rotary Club of Lyme Regis will once again be organising the popular Carols Around the Tree, to be held on Tuesday, December 23rd from 7pm to 7.45pm around the Christmas tree in Broad Street. Carols will be accompanied by the town band and soup and refreshments will be provided.

Celebrate this

by getting together with family and friends

This festive season enjoy our specially prepared and locally sourced lunch. From crackers through to our Pastry Chef's lovingly made mince pies. You'll be able to choose from dishes such as locally shot pheasant and chestnut terrine with a fig am, pan fried saddle of Crewkerne venison with a juniper jus and of course free range Devon turkey with all the trimmings. Christmas pudding with brandy sauce completes the festive picture!

We shall be serving our festive menu daily from Sunday, 1st December
2 course £19.75 / 3 course £24.50
Closed from 16th December.

The Alexandra is also the perfect venue for Christmas parties; for more details please contact us on 01297 442010 or events@hotalexandra.co.uk www.hotalexandra.co.uk/christmas

Christmas in LYME REGIS

Lyme's Fish Bar

LYME'S Fish Bar has been in business in the world heritage site of Lyme Regis for many years and was the first take-away in the town after the Second World War. Lyme's Fish Bar was founded 27 years ago by the Pelaou family and remains in their capable control.

Here at Lyme's fish bar, we cut and fillet our fish on-site for maximum freshness.

Our chips are hand-made from the finest Maris Piper potatoes, which are peeled and chipped on the premises for extra flavour.

The building that we operate in fits very well with this historic town as we are situated on the old main street known as Coombe Street (formerly known as Horse Street in the 19th century) and was the only route into town.

The building itself dates back more than 500 years and was once used as the parish poor house.

Our second outlet is situated along the seafront very close to the beautiful sandy beach. This is a take away only site, so you can enjoy your fresh fish and chips on the beach.

Lyme's Fish Bar will be open until 9:00pm so make your festive evening complete with a stroll around the corner for a warming supper from 'the chippy'.

Christmas in LYME REGIS

Clarondene

HAPPY Christmas, One and All!

Clarondene and Lyme Regis' Christmas is always special. At Clarondene, as we now have live-in carers, we have both resident staff and Alison & Residents here, so even more reasons to look forward to fun this festive season!

On 1st December, all the decorations will go up – indoors in the lounge, corridors and bedrooms, and outside in the newly renovated balcony and gardens. Again, we thank Manolo and Salvador for all their hard work and skills during their months here, which have given our building a face-lift ready to face what we all expect to be a hard winter. We will send pictures over to sunny Spain to show them how pretty the place looks once decked, especially how the coloured garden lights will reflect in our new waterfall!

We are looking forward to our decorations, the Lyme Christmas lights and our trip to Beer to admire their fund-raising efforts. We have booked 8 tickets for 'A Christmas Carol' in the Marine Theatre, will attend the Christmas Market, and take a look around Otter Nursery before a festive meal there. We are planning an Old Time dress-up Dance, a Christmas Open Morning, and an International Feast with traditional Czech, Bolivian, Philippine, Spanish and Romanian Fayre, as well as all the exchanging of cards and gifts.

We will also think about the true meaning of Christmas, helped as usual by our faithful Bethany friends. We will remember those Christmases passed, spent with loved ones we no longer see, and with friends and family in other times and places. There are poignant moments for everyone at Christmas, but for those who no longer live independent lives it is even more important for them to feel appreciated, cared for and safe in cheerful surroundings. We remember and do not forget those who spent previous Christmases with us and are now gone.

And to Cyril, as he approaches his 86th Birthday this December and his 6th Christmas here at Clarondene, we wish Happy Birthday, Merry Christmas and, in the words of Brucie, (slightly adapted)... KEEEEE BUSY!

Alice's Bear Shop

ALICE'S Bear Shop is a treasure trove of new, vintage and handmade bears, dolls and other cuddly toys. Open seven days of the week, it is one of the countries few remaining teddy bear and doll hospitals too. Visitors are invited to come in and cheer up the poorly patients who are sitting in their teddy sized beds waiting to be lovingly repaired by Dr Dave and Nurse Leslie. The shop carries an ever changing range of soft toys, in addition to the Alice's Bear Shop range of story books and soft toy characters. You can often find the author and illustrator, Rikey Austin, in store happy to sign and dedicate books. The shop also stocks a wide range the awarding winning Brain Box games, activity books and teddy bear clothes.

Alice's Bear Shop is also a haven for teddy bear makers with its wide range of mohair, antique velvets, glass eyes, cotterpin joints and stuffings for bear making and even holds year round bear making classes where you can learn to make your very own, mohair, jointed bear.

Lyme Wash Soaps

WITH just five weeks to go until Christmas, Lyme Wash Soaps in Silver Street are once again stocking their hugely popular Christmas soap. Fragranced with cinnamon and orange, it really brings the scent of Christmas into your bathroom.

Choose also from our extensive range of Bathtime Treats, we have something for everyone, from mini bath bombs and rubber ducks, to extravagant gift baskets and personalised gifts.

So for a sweet-smelling Christmas, look no further than Lyme Wash Soaps.

LymeWash Soaps

Our soaps are handmade in small batches using the traditional cold process method, and are formulated to be as kind to the skin as possible. All LymeWash Soaps are free from Parabens, SLS and artificial preservatives.

Town Mill Brewery

WITH Christmas fast approaching, it's time to plan the festivities. Having a party? Drinks with family? Town Mill Brewery can supply real ale in 5,10 or 20 litre beer boxes, or if you're really thirsty, in 72 pint casks. With free local delivery, there's no better way to get into the party spirit.

Nestled in the old town in Lyme Regis, we create delicious real ales in the traditional way using malted barley, hops, yeast and water. The ever popular beers Cobb, Lyme Gold, Town Mill Best, Black Ven and Revenge are available in pubs across the South West, or as bottle-conditioned ales in shops and restaurrants. Lucy's Sledge, our spiced orange Christmas Special, is perfect for mulled ale. That'll warm you up.

Our delicious chutneys are created locally and exclusively for us, using our ales and malts to give a rich, intense flavour. They're very tasty indeed and popular with ale and chutney lovers alike. Perfect with turkey.

Stuck for a present for the beer lover in your life? Then look no further. Everything from stocking fillers to presentation packs is here at the Town Mill Brewery in Lyme Regis.

The Mill Café & Supper Club

Italian home cooking at its best' The Diary

THE MILL Café & Supper Club is Lyme Regis's cosiest restaurant, ensconced within the Town Mill's artisan quarter. It holds just 30 people making it ideal if you want to book the whole restaurant for a Christmas party.

Our Christmas menu offers the chance to sample a number of traditional dishes inspired by Italy's regional cooking.

Here's just a few of our Trip Advisor reviews over the past 4 weeks:

'I have been to many great restaurants, but am seldom taken by surprise as I was on Saturday. Super. Really super.....'

'A wonderful experience'

'The beef stew was the best I have ever eaten'

'More distinct yet harmonious flavours than anything I have ever eaten'

'The food is to die for'

'Wow! Absolutely delicious'

Boat Building Academy

THE BOAT Building Academy is launching the latest flotilla of boats built by its students at 1000 on 9th December at Lyme Regis harbour. The Academy's now famous bi-annual event celebrates the end of their 38 week Boat Building, Maintenance and Support course and demonstrates the range of skills the students have learnt during their training. Built using both traditional and modern construction methods the boats include a 10' traditional clinker rowing boat, a 14'5 Herreshoff Biscayne Bay sailing skiff, a Hiawatha 15' cedar strip plank canoe and 17' western red cedar Arkansaw Traveller canoe with decorative inlaid woodwork.

The eleven students who make up the Class of March 2013 come from all over the country and have a diverse range of backgrounds. Some of them will leave Lyme Regis to work in boatyards (two have jobs at two of the most prestigious yards in the UK, Spirit Yachts and Henwood and Dean), others will work for themselves and others will end their sabbatical with new practical skills that will serve them a lifetime.

Come rain or winter sunshine the staff and students at the Boat Building Academy would like everyone to join them in celebration of the students' achievements.

Christmas in LYME REGIS

A Touch Of Vintage

WHY not visit our lovely shop for your Christmas shopping this year. We always carry the full range of all the latest Cath Kidston designer goods, but this year we have the new Cath Kidston Christmas range of items with her distinctive Father Christmas design in aprons, oven gloves and mugs.

The shop also stocks Cath Kidstons ever popular day bags and everyday bags as these are waterproof oil-cloth they often form a staple accessory for many women.

Building on our success in selling hats last year we have increased our wonderful range of hats to include designer waxed hats along with hand made head bands and hats from the local town milliner. So if you want to stay warm and snug this winter why not treat yourself. If you really want to cut a dash "Downton Abbey style" we have beautiful Italian designer felt creations this year in various colours and sizes to choose from. We will be so pleased if you want to pop into the shop and see all this great new stock for yourself!

We have many ideal Christmas presents, we sell pretty manicure sets, toiletry sets, wash bags, towels, wash mitts, flannels and dressing gowns.

The humble mug is always an acceptable present as we all do break one from time to time. We have an extensive range of unusual British designer bone china mugs. But this year we have an elegant new winter from Sophie Allport featuring Stags and Deer, in this range we also have oven gloves and tea towels.

We have been lucky enough this year to get a stock of the winning designer "Gloves of the year" these are soft warm elegant gloves with feature covered button cuffs in the seasons plums and aubergine colours. There is also a full selection of other top fashion gloves to choose from everything from funky chunky knitted mitts and fingerless gloves to elegant high quality leather gloves in all colours, we even stock the beautiful leather gloves Princess Kate wears!

Our little shop also has an ever growing fabulous selection of scarves from excellent value Christmas present priced scarves and fashion knits to intricate designs in quality cashmere and glittering throws for that special Christmas party.

We have wonderful vintage Silver Plate candlesticks, tureens, teapots and cream jugs in silver plate, the glint and gleam of these heirloom items will transform your Christmas table and can be brought out year after year to give Christmas that "Downton Abbey" feel.

This year we increased our range of Christmas decorations yet again as the choices items we have stocked over the last couple of years have proved so popular. This year not only do we have our very sophisticated range of baubles and our own "Touch of Vintage" baubles in presentation boxes; but some larger pieces to dress your home for that special day. We have large stags with silver glitter or in gleaming red wood and bundles of white and silver brushwood to effortlessly bring Christmas into any room.

Upstairs we have an exhibition of the winter range of prints, Xmas cards and mugs from our resident artist Ronnie Creswell.

We have built our high reputation on customer care and constantly offering new ranges of designer stock in our bright friendly and very pretty shop. There's a buzz about the Bees' calendar this Christmas

THINKING hard what to get for that extra stocking filler – then how about a Bridport Football Club calendar.

For the ardent fan or the teenage female as a change from One Direction, then what better than a year of the Bees players?

The calendar was the brainchild of three of Bridport Football Club's most dedicated supporters – Roger Lewis, George Stockley and Eddie Stiff – who with the sponsorship of Fowler Tool Hire and Huck Nets are selling them to raise money for club funds.

Priced at £6 each you can obtain a copy for your loved one from Roger Lewis on 01308 456706 or from the ground on Saturday mornings or match days.

Go on be a devil, and if you are lucky you may be one of two lucky people who will get a free copy!

The club are also running a Race Night this Saturday (November 23rd) at the Beehive.

Doors open at 7pm for a 7:30pm start and entry is free.

THANKS | Bridport Rugby Club chairman, Mark Perkin, handing over the consignment of rugby shirts to Ross Young of SOS Kit Aid

BRIDPORT Rugby Club has donated a consignment of shirts to help disadvantaged children around the world to play and enjoy sport.

The shirts were donated to the charity SOS Kit Aid which has already provided £3.5m worth of rugby, cricket and squash equipment – weighing 35 tonnes – to over 135,000 youngsters in 20 developing countries around the world.

The club received a certificate of thanks and acknowledgement as a committed supporter on the charity's website which is also supported by the IRB and Lords Taverners. It also means that shirts bearing Bridport Rugby Club's name could soon be worn by children all over the world.

Are you sitting on a fortune? Trio of authors set to release debut novels

WE all have something in our house which we think looks valuable, or then again we may have something that looks like a piece of tat that you have been using as an umbrella stand that is worth a fortune.

Tomorrow morning (Thursday) you have a chance to find out by taking it along to The Comrades Hall in Broadwindsor between 9am and 12 noon where a team of experts from Lawrence Fine Art in Crewkerne could just make your day when they hold an Antiques Valuation Morning.

It will only cost you £1 per item to have it valued and you will be helping to raise needed funds for Broadwindsor Primary School.

Four of Lawrence's experts – Miranda Bingham (jewellery), Alex Butcher (silver and vertu fur), Jeffrey Day (millitaria, coins and stamps) and Simon Jones (general valuations and collector's items) – will be on hand to assess your item, and refreshments and cakes will also be available.

READY | The Lawrence Auctioneers' team who will value your items in Broadwindsor

Guess the weight

ANGEL Carers will be holding a special charity contest in Bridport next month. Members of the public will get the chance to guess the weight of a cake outside the Electric Palace on Saturday, December 7th.

The cake, which will be made and donated by Janet Hedger, is also the prize for the entrant who guesses the nearest weight. Entry costs £1, with all the proceeds going to towards the Philippines typhoon disaster fund.

THREE debut novels inspired by Bridport and West Dorset are being launched this month with a book signing in the town this weekend.

The novels by musicians Mitch Norman and Sean Geraghty and journalist Margery Hookings had all been languishing in drawers before being published by the newly-formed Bridport Press.

Margery, who writes under the pen name, Maddie Grigg, said: "I published a novella, A Year in Lush Places, earlier this year which was based on my blog, The World from My Window. "The book, which takes a humorous and affectionate look at life in a West Dorset village, has been doing really well.

"I knew that Mitch and Sean, who I've known for many years, had once written novels about Bridport and the surrounding area and had never done anything with them.

She added: "People are so interested in anything to do with Bridport.

"I thought it was the right time to reveal a side of the area which might not be appreciated by those who've moved here recently."

Despite a geographical link, the three novels each tell very different stories.

According to the publishers, The Borassic Coast by S C Geraghty is a dark tale revealing the underbelly of the Jurassic Coast through linked characters and stories.

Mitch Norman's novel, Well, Fare Thee Well is described as a funny and poignant, bitter-sweet coming-of-age story, featuring scooters, Tamla Motown and girls.

A Town Like This is a farical romp by Maddie Grigg, featuring a cavernous outfitters with hidden attics and a local newspaper reporter out to make a name for himself.

Sean, who fronts the band The Sidekicks, said: "I'm delighted to have completed this project, after a helpful nudge from my writing buddies.

"The local theme seems to have created a healthy diversity in approaches that will hopefully reach readers further afield."

The Bridport Press was set up by Ms Hookings as a "sort of umbrella under which to publish the three titles," she said, and it has created a lot of interest.

She added: "I'm now looking at working on some children's fiction by local writers which has come my way."

The three writers will be signing copies of their books this Saturday, November 23rd at Waterstones, East Street, between 10am and 12pm.

An event to launch all three books is being held the following week at the Lyric Theatre, Bridport.

All the books can be ordered from local bookshops or via www.feedaread.com

Have your say with neighbourhood plan

RESIDENTS in Bridport and the surrounding area could soon have more influence over planning decisions in their community with the creation of a neighbourhood plan.

Plans are in the pipeline that could affect Bridport, as well as the Symonds-bury and Allington areas.

A neighbourhood plan aims to give residents more control over their local area, when plans for new homes, shops and offices in their town or village are considered.

Local communities are responsible for initiating, developing and submitting the plan. The district council can offer support and advice and will organise an independent examination once submitted. It will also be subject to a local referendum to check it has the support of local people.

Councillor Robert Gould, leader of West Dorset District Council, said: "Neighbourhood plans are about giving local people a proper say about the area they live in. We would like to hear anyone's views about the suitability of these areas."

Residents of those areas are being asked to put forward their views on whether they believe the areas covered are suitable or not.

A consultation will now be open until January 17th 2014, for comments. Details of the area applications and how to respond can be found at www.dorset-foryou.com/406403.

Comments can also be sent to the Spatial Policy team at West Dorset District Council, South Walks House, South Walks Road, Dorchester, Dorset, DT1 1UZ.

35 not out for Alun

A BRIDPORT-based optometrist is celebrating 35 years working at the same practice.

Alun Beaven has worked at IJ Brown, an award-winning opticians which has had a branch in Bridport since 1978, when the store was in Barrack Street.

Mr Beaven said: "I can't believe it is 35 years. I arrived in Bridport on Guy Fawkes Night with the skies bright with fireworks and started work the next day.

"A lot has changed in the optical industry and in the way we all live and work, presenting new challenges to everyone's eyesight.

"I can honestly say that I have thoroughly enjoyed my 35 years. I work in a profession that I love and I have been fortunate to have always had a very supportive and conscientious team working alongside me, and most importantly a large number of very loyal patients, many of whom I am pleased to say are still with me today and have become long term friends."

Alun graduated from Aston University in 1976 with an honours degree in ophthalmic optics before doing his pre-registration training in Cardiff.

He became a partner in IJ Brown Opticians in 1979, which now has four branches across Dorset and is one of the oldest opticians in the country, dating back to 1882.

Cycling coach gets Colfox students ready to ride

by Stuart Broom

BRITISH Cycling is hoping that a taster session held at The Sir John Colfox School will help generate interest in the sport, the creation of an after school club and eventual introduction into the school curriculum.

The Go-Ride for Schools scheme is part of British Cycling's Go-Ride development programme for young people.

The programme provides a fun and safe way to introduce young riders to the world of cycle sport and provides a platform to improve bike-handling skills.

Dave Jowett, coach for the South West region, was on hand last week to give students and staff an opportunity to see some of the skills and techniques that has made cycling one of the fastest growing sports in the UK today, with information on handling expertise to race skills.

He said: "We hope the feedback from those that have taken part, and two or three have already indicated a desire to take up the sport, will lead to the development of cycling in the school either through the curriculum or as an after school club.

"Coaching sessions hosted at schools can also lead to the development of new cycling clubs in the community whether as clubs, groups or just for leisure."

More information about the Go-Ride scheme can be found on the British Cycling website www.britishcycling.org.uk/go-ride.

Wise Owl Toys

A wise choice for fun & educational play!

WISE Owl Toys is family-run by David and Lesley James. It is an independent toyshop which places customer service and expert knowledge as their main priority. They seek to offer different, inspiring and fun toys and games that also have an educational aspect.

This Christmas they continue to have a great choice of traditional toys such as Farms, Castles and Dolls' Houses and you can reserve any product to avoid missing out at Christmas. They also stock a large range of craft and science based toys.

The Dorchester shop has probably the largest selection of Playmobil, Sylvanian Families, Schleich and Papo in the area, with the new Playmobil Dinosaurs, Western and Hotel ranges on display.

David and Lesley look forward to welcoming new and existing customers to their wonderful shop in Hardye Arcade, Dorchester in the run up to Christmas.

DJ BOY GEORGE COMES TO BRIDPORT FOR CLUBBING AND CULTURE!

Honey Trap Disco featuring Boy George at Electric Palace

BOY George is universally recognised as one of the music scenes most iconic artists and for the past 30 years has maintained a strong position at the forefront of this ever-changing, multi-faceted industry. To date George has sold over 100 million singles and in excess of 50 million albums as a performer and songwriter with 80's super group Culture Club and as a solo artist in his own right. He also continues to be one of the worlds most successful and in-demand international DJs touring extensively across the globe.

A DJ since the late 70's, Boy George has had a long and successful career associated with house music stemming from early acid house and Chicago grooves in the 80's, through to electro and tech house in the 90's and 00's. Opening 2011 with the release of his long awaited artist album 'Ordinary Alien', a dancefloor focused album that consisted of unreleased material, George decided to return to the business of running his own record label, so back in spring 2011 he launched a new musical era in his career with the birth of VG Records with fellow DJ/producer Marc Vedo. Geared towards releasing cool, credible house tracks the label gives George and Marc the freedom to sign both underground and commercially respected artists. With a long list of guest slots on radio stations such as Radio 1, Kiss FM, Sirius and Capital, George has also featured heavily on TV shows around the world with appearances on programmes like BBC 1 Jonathan Ross, Jools Holland, Never Mind the Buzzcocks, VH1, Top of the Pops and CD:TV.

Honey Trap Disco featuring Boy George will be at Bridport's Electric Palace on Friday, December 13th. Doors open 9.30pm, and the bar will remain open until 2am. Tickets cost £15+bf in advance, and are available online at www.electricpalace.org.uk or by calling 01308 424901.

REVIEW

Charlie Dore & Julian Littman, plus Edward's Electric Chorus
Thursday, October 17th
Electric Palace, Bridport

BRIDPORT'S Electric Palace played host to an enthusiastic audience assembled to hear the well-known singer songwriters Charlie Dore and Julian Littman (Steeleye Span), and newly-formed local choir 'Edward's Electric Chorus'.

Charlie and Julian entertained with a well chosen selection of folk music, both new and from their various albums. Charlie delighted the audience with anecdotes describing the situations which gave rise to some their songs, and her lively banter created an infectious bond between the audience and performers.

Edward's Electric Chorus, set up by local choirmaster Edward Jacobs, is an amalgam of two local choirs, The Axe Valley Community Choir and the Charmouth and Bridport Pop and Rock Choir. The chorus opened the evening with a selection of favourites from their extensive repertoire, starting the with rousing 'Sun Arise'. Their program also included a moving rendering of 'I Dreamed a Dream' and ended on a joyous and toe-tapping version of 'Jambalaya'. This all set the tone for a magical evening of vibrant entertainment.

Charlie Dore is a master of unusual and individual lyrics, always thought provoking with gentle humour. She was supported admirably by Julian Littman, whose inimitable skill with instruments such as guitar, ukelele, and mandolin was certainly full of energy.

Charlie Dore with the Electric Chorus

Extra support was provided by folk performer Reg Meuross. Both he and the Electric Chorus gave polished performances, which blended well with the relaxed and captivating delivery of these two award-winning artists.

Edward Jacobs was musical director for the chorus, and managed the liaison between Charlie Dore and the choir. This skill produced a perfect fusion between the various elements of the evening.

Charlie spoke of her delight at working with such a fearless choir who took on new pieces, as well as established pieces such as 'Pilot of the Airwaves', to accompany herself and Julian so powerfully.

Edward's efforts were rewarded with a very well deserved round of applause from the audience.

The 'club' style seating layout in the theatre helped the audience feel part of terrific live entertainment, producing that feeling of inclusion which always marks wonderful evenings such as this.

If you require fire protection services for your premises then YOU NEED BAFE to be sure that the companies that provide them meet all the appropriate standards and are independently audited. BAFE third party certified schemes are a recognised measure of the quality required to provide fire protection services.

BAFE is supported by Statutory bodies, the Fire and Rescue Services, Insurers and leading Certification and Trade Bodies.

BAFE develops Third Party certification schemes with all the interested parties and works with UKAS accredited Certification Bodies to assess and approve companies to these standards. There are now well over 1000 organisations located throughout the UK, registered to BAFE schemes

What does Gas Safe Register do?

The main focus of the Register is on improving and maintaining gas safety to the highest standards. We make sure all gas engineers on the Register, over 125,000, are qualified to work with gas.

We work to protect the public from unsafe gas work through;

- A dedicated national investigations team tracking down individuals working illegally
- Regular inspections of Gas Safe registered engineers
- Educating consumers and raising awareness of gas safety
- Investigating reports of unsafe gas work.

The Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) and the Independent Safeguarding Authority (ISA) have merged to become the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS). CRB checks are now called DBS checks.

A DBS check may be needed for:

- Certain jobs or voluntary work - eg working with children or in healthcare
- Applying to foster or adopt a child

There are different rules for getting a criminal record check in Scotland and Northern Ireland.

How to get a DBS check

1. The employer gets an application form from DBS or an umbrella body (a registered body that gives access to DBS checks).
2. The employer gives the applicant (job candidate) the form to fill in and return to them along with documents proving their identity.
3. The employer sends the completed application form to DBS or their umbrella body.
4. DBS sends a certificate to the applicant. The employer will have to ask the applicant to see the certificate.

The Crachit family

A celebration of the music of Santana

RECENTLY described by Classic Rock Magazine as "One Of The Top 5 Must See Tributes In The UK", phenomenal 7-piece Latin rock explosion Viva Santana continues to amaze fans wherever they present their celebration of the music of the legendary Carlos Santana.

Created in the spring of the millennium year by inspiration Spanish guitarist Marcos Rodriguez, the Viva Santana family consists of talented, dedicated, professional musicians who fully immerse themselves to recreate the moods, sounds and atmosphere of Santana's music with passion, heart, soul and chilling accuracy. The current line up of musicians have played and toured with such artists as Roger Daltrey, Joan Armatrading, Matt Bianco, Jethro Tull, Bad Manners, Desmond Dekker, Yes and Robin Jones who now tours with the band. "Tribute Band" simply doesn't do them justice.

Viva Santana play at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Saturday, November 30th. Doors open 7.45pm. Tickets cost £14 and £13 concessions.

Tickets are available online at www.marinetheatre.com or by calling 01297 442138.

TREASURE ISLAND

THERE be a mutiny! Robert Louis Stevenson's classic tale 'Treasure Island' comes to Dorchester Corn Exchange on Friday, December 6th and to Bridport Arts Centre Saturday, December 7th.

Performed by award winning theatre company Mind the Gap, the story is re-told by nationally acclaimed writer Mike Kenny and set in a supermarket where everyday objects are transformed as late-night shelf stackers let their imaginations run wild.

As modern-day and fantasy worlds collide, Flint's supermarket becomes the scene for adventure where carrots transform into parrots and cut-loaves into cutlasses! Shopping trollies become ships, tin cans become parrots and checkouts become desert islands!

BOOKING ESSENTIAL

MONSTER BOOK SALE AT DORSET COUNTY MUSEUM

Calling all book buyers, collectors and bargain hunters

DORSET County Museum is holding a massive second-hand book sale from Friday, November 22nd to Monday, November 25th between 10.00am and 4.00pm. Thousands of quality books will be sold at bargain prices - fact, fiction, hardback and softback. Hundreds of subjects will be represented including travel, history, music, art and gardening. A wide selection of fiction will also be available.

able including hard and soft backs. A few minutes' careful searching could reveal untold treasures!

In addition, there will be a sale of Dorset Natural History and Archaeological Society and Dorset Record Society publications at knock-down prices - available only to buyers who visit the sale in person. The Museum's well-stocked gift shop is also well worth a visit with Christmas lines now available, and the popular tea room awaits weary bargain hunters.

All proceeds go towards the upkeep of the Museum and its extensive collections.

Everyone is welcome and entry to the sale is free - it would help the Museum if visitors could bring their own bags as supplies of plastic bags will be limited. Please note the Museum will not be open on Sunday 24 November. For more information contact the Museum on 01305 262735 or visit the website on www.dorsetcountymuseum.org.

Traces of the British Empire in India: a talk at Dorset County Museum

ROLAND Tarr will give a talk at Dorset County Museum on Thursday, November 28th, entitled 'India, Traces of the British Empire, Bombay to Calcutta 2013'.

Just before leaving to travel across central India earlier this year, Roland Tarr was asked by a friend what still remains of Britain's presence in India. Taking up this theme, his illustrated presentation will show some of the extraordinary architectural and engineering feats of the empire. The talk will also discuss some magnificent palaces, castles, temples and landscapes of the sub-continent.

All are welcome to this talk at the Museum. Entry is free of charge but a donation of £3 is encouraged to cover costs. For further information please see www.dorsetcountymuseum.org or telephone 01305 262735.

Dizraeli and the Small Gods bend the boundaries of Hip-hop

DIZRAELI and the Small Gods

DIZRAELI and the Small Gods are a 7-piece band from Engurland, playing a melodic, unashamedly heartfelt reinvention of hiphop.

Headed by award-winning rapper and multi-instrumentalist Dizraeli, The Small Gods formed in autumn 2009 to tour Diz's debut solo album Engurland (City Shanties). Within a year the band had been invited to play on prestigious stages around the country, from Glastonbury's West Holts stage to London's Queen Elizabeth Hall, and had collaborated with artists as diverse as Chris Wood (2x BBC Folk Singer of the Year) and Shlomo (beat-boxer and World Loop Station Champion). Female World BeatBox Champion Bellatrix features as special guest on some shows. After starting 2011 with a UK-wide tour and the release of their single Million Miles, Dizraeli and the Small Gods were featured at over 25 festivals including Reading, Leeds, Latitude and Glastonbury, and earned themselves something approaching a cult following for their live shows.

Dizraeli and the Small Gods play at Bridport's Electric Palace this Thursday, November 21st. Doors open 7pm.

Tickets cost £10 plus booking fee in advance, or £12 on the door. Support comes from The Gaslight Troubadours.

WHAT HENS DO!

A BRIDE to be and two of her chicks cause mayhem at an Italian restaurant in the Chideock Players latest production, 'Dish of the day', a comedy by Christine Woodhead.

The wine is flowing on this motley crew much to the annoyance of the other diners. An inept waiter adds to the confusion which ends in the long arm of the law getting involved! Just another day in Chideock!

Dish of the day will be performed on November 28th, 29th and 30th at Chideock Village Hall at 7.30pm.

Tickets cost £5 from Hilary Baker on 01297 489555, Chideock Londis Store or at the door.

Church, Bridport.

This beautiful work combines a solo voice and strings in settings of poems by the 17th century poet and priest, Thomas Traherne, which reflect the joy and wonder of a newborn child's innocent perspective on the world. The Bridport Chamber Orchestra are delighted to be playing this with Peter Wilman, a tremendously experienced soloist who has performed in operas, recitals and concerts both in this country and overseas. Peter has been conducted in 'Dies Natalis' previously by the composer's son and performed all Finzi's tenor songs at music festivals, so the audience can be assured of a superb rendition. Other music at the concert will include works by Peter Warlock, Handel and Mendelssohn, and the audience can be refreshed by tea and cakes afterwards. Tickets can be purchased on the door at £8, and from the Bridport Book Shop and Music Shop – don't miss this super event!

HOLLOWAY

LYME REGIS – FIXED PRICE £499,950

THIS well-appointed detached three bedroom house is located in a popular residential area of Lyme Regis and benefits from having a large garden with a fully equipped log cabin, workshop and shed.

A detached house built approximately 15 years ago and presented in excellent order being situated in the popular residential area of Colway Lane in Lyme Regis. The accommodation briefly comprises; entrance hall, downstairs WC, lounge, study, kitchen and utility room and conservatory. On the first floor: master bedroom with en-suite, two further bedrooms and bathroom. The property benefits from gas fired central heating and uPVC double glazing throughout. To the rear of the property set in the gardens is a Norwegian pine lodge offering extra accommodation with a living area, kitchen area and shower room. A further workshop and shed, garage and ample parking. EPC band D.

Lyme Regis is famed for its many historic connections and character buildings, and of course, for its well known Cobb Harbour. As a resort, it is considered quite unspoilt, but has most of the shops and amenities that one could require, in addition to which there are numerous leisure activities including both sailing and power boat clubs, a cliff top golf course and a bowling club. The whole coastline with Lyme Regis and Charmouth at its centre has recently been designated a World Heritage Site (and is commonly known as the Jurassic Coast). It lies approximately 5 miles from the market town of Axminster, with its main line railway connections to Waterloo (Approx. 2 3/4 hours). The market town of Bridport is approximately 7 miles distant, with Taunton and Exeter within a radius of about 30 miles with access to the M5 motorway. The county town of Dorchester is within a similar distance.

A viewing is highly recommended to appreciate all this property has to offer.

Please call Fortnam Smith & Banwell Estate Agents on 01297 445666 to arrange a viewing.

Audi wins through in UK's largest reliability survey

AUDI is the UK's most reliable manufacturer according to the annual FN50 survey, which this year gauged the opinion of over 600,000 company car drivers served by the nation's most prominent leasing companies.

The FN50 survey, commissioned annually by the specialist fleet title Fleet News, is the nation's largest poll of vehicle reliability. It asks participants from the top 50 (by fleet size) leasing companies to rank the best vehicles and manufacturers for reliability, and then filters each category into a Top 10.

Two Audi models – the A3 compact hatchback and the A4 compact executive Saloon and Avant – appear in the Most Reliable Cars Top 10, the A3 ascending from seventh position last year to fifth in 2013 and the A4 from third to second place. The A1 premium subcompact, the Q3 compact SUV and the TT sports car also climbed the rankings in this year's results. According to the magazine's editorial it is these positive movements which have helped to swing the Most Reliable Manufacturer result in favour of Audi.

At the FN50 Awards, held last night in London, Head of Audi Fleet Sales James Douglas collected the Most Reliable Manufacturer Award on behalf of the brand, and commented: "Fleet managers and the drivers they serve have every right to be a brand's harshest critics because so much of their business life revolves around the cars chosen by, and for them, and they need to be able to count on them unconditionally. We are delighted that the key fleet-focused Audi models continue to uphold our reputation for quality and engineering excellence in the hands of drivers who arguably demand the most from them."

Audi produces an array of models that combine its famed flair for design, technological innovation and exceptional quality of finish with particular focus on cost effectiveness for business users. The range includes a total of 139 options with emissions of less than 140g/km, 57 variants emitting 120g/km or below and nine undercutting the 100g/km marker.

Highlights from among these economy champions include the A4 2.0 TDI Saloon with its potential for up to 65.7mpg and low 112g/km emissions, the A6 2.0 TDI offering up to 57.6mpg with a 129g/km output and the new generation A8 3.0 TDI quattro, capable of returning up to 47.9mpg while keeping CO2 down to just 155g/km. For the ultimate in VED-beating financial viability in the line-up, three A3 1.6 TDI variants, including the acclaimed new Saloon, pare emissions back to just 99g/km and boost fuel economy to up to 74.3mpg.

Suzuki celebrates Swift double win at the Green Apple Awards

THE Suzuki Swift won double at The Green Apple Awards at the House of Commons earlier this week. The awards are organised by The Green Organisation and judged by the Midland Group of Motoring Journalists.

Swift took the top prize in the small cars category and second overall, beating competition by impressing the judges with its great drive, with one judge commenting: "A nippy little engine and agile handling easily make this the best supermini I have driven, perfect for around town."

Green credentials were also highlighted by the panel: "It's never been easier to enjoy a car while admiring the way it empties its small tank so slowly." Swift has just got even greener with the recent introduction of the updated 1.3 DDiS engine, which produces CO2 emissions of just 101g/km and offers 72.4mpg on the combined cycle. The 1.2 dual VVT petrol engine is one of the cleanest supermini engines on the market, with emissions of just 116g/km CO2 attracting just £30 per year in VED charges (manual transmission).

Swift customers can currently enjoy the benefit of purchasing their new car VAT free until the end of December 2013 with a range of highly competitive PCP offers also available. As an example, the SZ2 three door at £8,999 remains available for a deposit of only £159 followed by 42 monthly payments of £159 and an optional payment of £3,535. The five door SZ2 is also available for £159 per month but requires a slightly higher deposit of £639.

Distinctive all-new Mazda3 benefits from strong residual values

- Models retain up to 37% of their value at three years/60,000 miles
- All-new Mazda3 is an excellent choice for fleets
- A "competitive player in a heavily crowded sector", says CAP

BUSINESSES taking delivery of the all-new Mazda3, which goes on sale in January 2014, will be making an excellent choice as strong residual values are forecast.

Cost management is top of the fleet agenda and company car decision-makers can save money by ensuring the all-new Mazda3 wins a place on vehicle choice lists as depreciation rates in cash terms are among the best in the sector taking account of both volume and premium badge rivals.

Data from vehicle information providers CAP suggests that at the fleet benchmark of three years/60,000 miles, the all-new Mazda3 will retain up to 37 per cent of its value - comfortably outperforming key competitors.

The all-new Mazda3 will be available in two body styles - hatchback and Fastback (saloon). The 36-strong model range offers the choice of three petrol and one diesel engine all featuring Mazda's breakthrough SKYACTIV technology - the SKYACTIV-G 1.5-litre 100ps petrol engine delivers up to 55.4mpg on the combined cycle and emissions from 119g/km; the 2.0-litre 120ps is just as frugal as the smaller engine and also offers up to 55.4mpg and emissions from 119g/km; meanwhile the 2.0-litre 165ps achieves up to 48.7mpg whilst emitting 135g/km of CO2. The 2.2-litre SKYACTIV-D 150ps diesel engine, which meets Euro 6 emission standards has even better performance returning up to 72.4mpg with emissions from 104g/km.

Diesel demand is expected to be particularly strong - due to first-class fuel economy and low CO2 emissions delivering company car tax bills from £48 a month in 2013/14 for a basic rate taxpayer (£96 a month at the higher rate).

Used car purchasers who invariably seek out models with low CO2 emissions and excellent fuel economy reflects on the all-new Mazda3 hatchback and Fastback diesels ability to retain 35-37 per cent of their value at three-years/60,000 miles, says CAP.

Turning to the diesel Fastback range, residual values are led by the 2.2-litre 150ps SE-L Nav (£21,290*) and the 2.2-litre 150ps Sport Nav (£22,090), which CAP forecasts will each retain 35 percent of their value at £7,475 and £7,750 respectively at three years/60,000 miles.

Likewise, the all-new Mazda3 petrol-engine hatchback and Fastback models are expected to retain up to 35 per cent of their value at three-years/60,000 miles, according to CAP.

The valuation experts predict that the residual value pacesetters will be the 2.0-litre 5dr hatchback 120ps SE petrol (£16,940) retaining 35 per cent/£5,950 with a similar percentage value being retained by the other 2.0-litre petrol engine models.

All-new Mazda3 adopts the KODO - Soul of Motion - design theme of the Mazda CX-5 and new Mazda6 and CAP forecasting editor (cars) Jeff Knight said: "As another iteration of the KODO design, all-new Mazda3 creates a genuinely distinctive look and feel for a C Sector car.

"It's wider and lower, giving it a more assured road presence - a visual appeal that has already paid off for the new Mazda6.

"Inside there are obvious improvements in the materials used and in the car's build quality. An increase in interior space has also been achieved, which will be attractive to buyers.

"Allied with lightweight SKYACTIV technology, a well specified car with a 150ps diesel engine offering from just 104g/km of CO2 is a genuinely interesting and competitive player in a heavily crowded sector."

Mazda Head of Fleet Steve Tomlin-son said: "All-new Mazda3 represents a fantastic cost-effective alternative to the perceived mainstream models in the lower medium sector.

"With fresh styling, great vehicle dynamics, low CO2 emissions, excellent fuel economy and now first-class residual values, we expect the all-new Mazda3 to secure its own niche on the fleet map alongside the ever popular new Mazda6 and the increasingly in-demand Mazda CX-5.

"The introduction of SKYACTIV technology in both the Mazda CX-5 and new Mazda6 within the past 13 months has helped to increase Mazda's penetration in the fleet sector and the arrival of the all-new Mazda3 with similar benefits will further enhance our corporate proposition."

Rainbows through to last eight Charmouth on top in 10-goal spree

ROUND UP DORSET INTERMEDIATE CUP (last 16) BEAMINSTER 3 REDLANDS FC 0

GOALS from Ben Ward (2) and Tom Marsh saw Beaminster line-up a home Dorset Intermediate cup quarter-final against Lytchett Red Triangle on December 14th.

The Rainbows went into the game without suspended centre-back Dean Highett but the versatile Murray Legg proved to be a more than adequate deputy. "Murray was exceptional today," said Beaminster manager Matt Hughes.

Hughes was impressed by his whole squad who he felt had put in their best performance of the season.

Beaminster's clean sheet was their first at the Memorial Ground in 20 months.

◆ Revised quarter-final draw: Beaminster v Lytchett Red Triangle, Lyme Regis v Parley Sports A, Gillingham Town A v Alledale, Nornalair RSL v Wyke Regis SC (ties to be played on December 14th).

PREMIER LYME REGIS P MILLWEY RISE P

Postponed - waterlogged pitch.

MISTERTON 1 PERRY STREET 3
WITH regular gloveman Nathan Bandy suspended Perry Street manager Ian Hilton took over between the sticks and saw his team bag the three points which moves them to the top of the premier division table.

The visitors led through a Harry Lemon header at the interval. Kieran Bailey made it 2-0 before Ben Brister pulled one back for Missy in the 71st minute.

But Liam Riste sealed the win.

Winsham Utd 0 Shepton Beau 4

REIGNING premier division Champions Winsham United slipped four points adrift at the foot of the table after a 4-0 defeat at the hands of Shepton Beauchamp.

Things started badly for Shepton when striker Dan Smith, fresh from his four goals last week, was forced off injured after just 30 seconds.

With the prolific Sam Murley having recently moved up north to live in Preston, this left Shepton a little short of firepower.

Towering centre-back Kris Hastings was pushed up top as a replacement and proceeded to score twice as did Aaron Sweet.

W & M CHINNOCK 1 ILMINSTER RES 2

AFTER goal less first-half a 25-yard special from Rob Sutton put Ilminster Town Reserves on the road to victory at Oxleaze.

Liam Ryall added a second for the Blues, who gave a start to striker Greg Channing who has joined from Chard Town Reserves, before Chinnocks' manager-keeper Matt Alfrod got his name on the score sheet with a late fizzler from the edge of the box.

DIVISION ONE NETHERBURY 6 BEAMINSTER RES 0

THE Ambers put in one of their best performances of the season so far to thump local rivals Beaminster Reserves 6-0.

With both teams at the wrong half of the table it could have been a cagey game, but Netherbury were soon 2-0 up inside 20 minutes.

Man-of-the-Match Phil Hussey, showing he has lost none of his instinct in front of goal after his 'retirement' at the end of last season, tormented the visitors and finished with four well taken goals.

Reece Bulman and Gary Corey also featured on the score sheet but Beaminster, to their credit, dug in and worked hard to try and keep the scoreline down, however Netherbury should of added to the six goals.

The stand-in management duo of Dave Edwards and Lee Stork said: "All the lads played really well today and it was encouraging to see them working as a team, we played some great football."

PERRY STREET RES 4 PYMORE 0

PYMORE'S slump continued as they were well beaten by high-flying Perry Street Reserves at Tatworth and have now lost three on the spin.

Dan Collins gave the Mothers a 1-0 lead at the break and went on to complete a fine hat-trick. Jay Stewart scored the other goal.

UPLYME 1 FARWAY UTD 2

STEVE Gillan's first goal in almost a year - a stunning 20-yarder to cap off a fine team move - failed to inspire struggling Uplyme to their first win of the season.

Gillan's goal gave the Swallows a slender half-time lead but Farway battled away and Bradley King equalised with a superb solo effort.

The visitors then got their noses in front with what proved to be the winner by Dan Williams.

Uplyme thought they had secured a valuable point two minutes from time but James Beddows had his goal ruled out for offside.

Afterwards Uplyme manager Rob Coombe said: "We did ok - even their manager said we were robbed - if we carry on like that we'll be fine."

DIVISION TWO CHARMOUTH 6 SOUTH PETHERTON RES 4

AN EXPLOSIVE opening five minutes at Barrs Lane produced five goals with hosts Charmouth emerging with a slender 3-2 advantage.

The hosts scored first when Dan Rendell converted from the penalty spot following a high boot infringement on Paul Miners.

Pethy equalised from a penalty of their own soon after following a foul by home 'keeper Marcus Bearpark.

Back came the Robins and Kierran slotted home number two after Matt Pile's initial shot had been parried.

A third penalty then saw the visitors level for a second time.

But the early goal flurry was ended when Pile deftly lifted the ball over the 'keeper in one-on-one chance.

Amazingly referee Dave Carter then awarded his fourth spot-kick of the half and Rendall bagged his second after he himself had been brought down.

Pile scored his second soon after the turnaround and the Robins finally had breathing space at 5-2.

Pethy responded to make it 5-3 but Scott Meyers popped up to restore the three-goal advantage and a late fourth for the visitors was a mere consolation.

The win lifts Andy Potter's side up to fourth spot in the table.

DOWLISH & DONYATT 0 WAYTOWN HOUNDS 2

WAYTOWN opted to go up the steep Dowlish slope in the first-half and some very good defending and a couple of fine saves from keeper Leigh Cuff, kept it goal-less at half time.

The second-half saw the Hounds in control and, after going close several times, Steve Masters finally broke the deadlock.

The win was sealed when Matt Read teed up with Jon Legg who finished well. Top performers for the Hounds were Tom Knott and Leigh Hansford.

DIVISION THREE CHARD UTD RES 2 LYME BANTAMS 4

THE race for the two Division Three promotion places heated up after Saturday's results.

Fourth-placed Lyme Regis Bantams travelled to take on leaders Chard United Reserves expecting a tough test and that's exactly how it turned out.

With regular gloveman Mark Tozer unavailable Lyme gave a debut to 16-year-old youth team keeper Toby Fowler and the youngster put in a fine shift showing good composure and pulling off several excellent saves.

Kicking down the Jocelyn Park slope Chard opened the scoring in the 16th minute when a diagonal ball across the box fell at the feet of Steve Barnes who bundled home his fourth goal in as many games.

Two minutes later Fowler was called into action with what was to prove to be a crucial point blank save to deny free-scoring ex-Winsham United striker Bryan Garrett.

Lyme plugged away up the hill. On the half hour United 'keeper James Witt made a fine double save to keep out efforts from Pete Peacock and Jason Hawker.

The Seaside's grabbed an equaliser in the 41st minute when Peacock took his time before firmly slamming home a low drive.

Lyme took the lead soon after the interval when Peacock crossed to the far post where Steve Batey planted a diving header firmly past Witt.

But it was far from one-way traffic and the hosts equalised midway through the half when Tom Newport fired home a low, skidding drive that squirmed under Fowler.

Back at the other end Batey went close to registering his 100th PSDL goal with a scorching angled shot that clipped the post.

The Seaside's reclaimed the lead when a long throw-in was headed into his own net by Chard defender Rod Major.

Peacock went close soon after with outrageous back heel flick that struck the crossbar.

But the prolific front man stabbed home his second two minutes from the end.

DIVISION FOUR MERRIOTT DYN 11 UPLYME RES 2

THE free-scoring Merriott Dynamos put bottom-of-the-league Uplyme Reserves to the sword at Hinton.

Kieran Adams bagged four while the PSDL's joint top-scorer Scott Jennings moved up to 17 with a hat-trick.

The hosts led 10-0 at half-time before player-manager Hung Dang made some changes with he felt disrupted his side.

Uplyme manager Stuart Wooster was pleased to see his side, ravaged by first team call-ups, keep going despite the first 45 mauling.

Wooster and Brandon Bryant scored after the turnaround and the visitors were pleased to 'win' the second half 2-1!

Top Seed lands win double

SUNDAY'S stableford was very keenly contested as junior vice-captain George Seed and junior captain David Lyon battled it out for top spot.

In the end it was Seed who won Division One with 40 points from Lyon in second place with 39 points while Steve Pielasz came in 3rd with 38 points.

Division Two was won clearly by Luke De Pasquale with 38 points from Simon Leech 35 with Joey Thirlwell 3rd on countback, also with 35 points.

Seed was also in action later in the day on Sunday when he played Danny Searle in the final of the Astill Trophy.

This was to prove a very exciting match but finally Seed won on the 20th hole to end a very memorable day.

Tuesday saw a packed clubhouse enjoy a Quiz evening.

Junior Blues show grit at London Irish

BRIDPORT U12s and U11s travelled to London Irish RFC on Saturday to play in the Land Rover Cup Festival that involved 32 other teams looking to compete in the final at Twickenham.

Both teams enjoyed the experience immensely, and while they won't be treading the hallowed ground at rugby HQ, produced performance that both the club and their parents and families that travelled to support them will be proud of.

Under 12s

THE under 12s performances improved throughout the day, they crowned a great experience against some large clubs with a victory and a draw in their four matches.

A narrow 5-0 defeat to Wimborne was followed by a 10-5 victory against Farnborough, with tries coming from Eddie Gate and Henry Wirral.

After this exhaustive effort Bridport faced their toughest team, Wooten Bassett, and despite a superb team performance lost 10-0.

In the final pool game Bridport played Heathfield where a try from Joe Elsworth took Bridport into an early lead. Heathfield came back strongly and scored twice but Bridport dug deep to equalise with another try from Elsworth to end the game 10-10.

This game was summarised at the end by the referee who described it as "The best quality of rugby in this age group from both side that I've refereed."

The U12s have an exciting squad that is really gelling together and they can be proud of their work effort in this cup festival.

Under 11s

Wimborne 10 Bridport 5

The first match was a regular fixture for the Blues against Wimborne.

With the boys quickly warmed up they had to be switched on from the very start, and although they did their best a try from Wimborne put them behind at half-time.

With a quick turnaround, it was Bridport that applied the early pressure with a crashing drive and try from Reuben Jolliffe that levelled the score. It remained tight and hard fought until the last minute when Wimborne possession and pressure saw them score without time to answer as the final whistle blew.

Tadley A 0 Bridport 0

THIS second game was an exciting and nervous game to watch for on looking parents and coaches.

"Although no tries were scored the game was always in the balance and overall Bridport's best game in the pool group as they held the eventual semi finalists to a scoreless draw.

The under 11s completed their pool games with a 20-0 defeat against Harlequins and a 25-0 loss against Reading Abbey who were both well drilled and disciplined sides and outclassed Bridport.

◆ GREAT PERFORMANCE: Bridport U11s who did extremely well against some bigger clubs with two of the London Irish players.

Under 11's coach Guy Furner said: "As a coach we are working on our structure and it is early days for this squad and I'm afraid it showed in these games with our weaknesses being highlight through a more experience and I must say larger set of boys.

"I'm sure our squad learnt a lot from their experience, which we will use during the rest on the season.

"I hope the team spirit is stronger from the first trip away and the players enjoyed a memorable day!"

He added: "Our trip for both sides started with a 6am coach departure on a damp Sunday morning, which showed an impressive commitment from our players and parents, so thank you."

HOCKEY

Hawks just edge battling ISCA

West Dorset Hawks 2 ISCA D 1

LOOKING to continue their good run of play West Dorset Hawks were full of confidence despite missing three key players in Gavin Brooking, Rick Steele and Steve Mearling which saw the return of Alex Davies to first team duties and new centre forward Mike Blake.

Hawks were unable to convert a number of early chances due to some great saves from the visiting stopper, and midway through the half ISCA began to organise themselves and defended well against the relentless attacks that had served up so many goals for Hawks over the last three weeks.

They cunningly allowed Hawks to over commit and then hit them on the break, and after a rare misspass from the normally solid Lee Connolly, ISCA made their only real attack of the half count when 'keeper Tom Lowe was left one-on-one with the centre forward who tucked the ball away.

A frustrated Hawks could not find a way through, but after a rallying half-time talk from captain Rick Dormer they started again in top gear.

ISCA could barely get the ball out of their own half as Hawks relentlessly pummelled their goal, winning penalty corner after penalty corner, but grew ever frustrated as they just could not convert.

Then six minutes form the end they finally broke the visiting defence when Alex Davies deftly lobbed the ball into the back of the net.

ISCA, desperately hoping for a draw, were punished for their passive play when Davies intercepted a defensive clearance, beat two players and unselfishly passed to Rob Coombes who scored the winner with an unstoppable strike to give Hawks the three points.

Skipper Dormer said: "This was the toughest game we've had all season, we were so close to losing and throwing any title hopes away. I'm so proud of the boys for digging in and fighting back."

Hawks: Lowe, Dormer, May, Coombes, Blake, A Davies, Wyatt, George, Connolly, Goodfellow, C Davies. Umpires: M Harvey, R Sinclair.

Off form Beaminster made to pay

BLANDFORD & STURMINSTER NEWTON 2ND 3 BEAMINSTER 1
BEAMINSTER Ladies Hockey team missed the opportunity of leapfrogging their opponents into third spot in Channel

1 with a dismal performance at the Clayesmore Sports Centre.

Despite missing two of their more experienced players through injury, the young West Dorset ladies had enough skill in the side to have beaten their more senior opponents, but failed to play as a unit.

Blandford played as a team, while Beaminster had too many individuals who failed to find any cohesion. They also had the aid of two umpires who were more than generous in their decision making to the hosts, and although it didn't ultimately affect the result, it only added to Beaminster's frustration. Only Danni Donovan emerged with any credit in a poor team performance.

The first-half which ended goalless saw poor hockey from both sides.

Blandford & SN took the lead after the turnaround with a dubious goal. Beaminster had defended a short corner well and were in the process of clearing it when Jenny Clarke was fouled.

However the umpires ignored it and a shot from the perpetrator from outside the D was deflected home.

They increased their lead as Beaminster looked to push for an equaliser, when a forward was on hand to flick a rebound over Lisa Condliffe before she could recover from the initial save.

Their third came as a result of poor defending which again saw a forward take advantage of the rebound after Condliffe's initial save.

Beaminster pulled one back eight minutes from time when Julia May's quick thinking from a free hit found Hannah Dale to score, but it was too late to affect the result.

Interestingly, the umpires who had ignored blatant fouls on Beaminster players and favoured the home side for the whole game, missed an obvious and legal opportunity for Blandford to add to their score just before the end when they should have been awarded a penalty flick for feet on the goal line, but awarded an unsuccessful short corner.

Beaminster will need to learn from this game and get back to the running and passing game they have been playing successfully, and forget going for glory.

Captain Julia May said: "Their coach described his team's performance as the best he had seen them play, and while you must give them credit for being in third spot, if we play to the level we know we are capable and with a full team, we can look forward to the return match."

BOB BUCKLER RACING

Saint Peray back and looking good

SAINT Peray made his comeback after 639 days away from the track following a leg problem and turned in a very useful performance in the Debut RMB Chivenor Handicap Hurdle over three miles at Taunton last Thursday.

Bob Buckler declared himself "very pleased" with the seven-year-old who showed well to finish fifth after running out of steam in the home straight.

"He was neat and fast over the hurdles but as expected got tired towards the end. We're really delighted and he will come of for the race."

Having run so well over hurdles in his comeback Buckler thought that he may continue, rather than return to fences.

"He jumped them so quick and well so we may well continue for a while," he added.

delighted

The Henley trainer was also delighted with the running of Lady Oaksey who has not made an auspicious start since joining the stable, having dumped her jockey in the first race and falling at the last in the second.

However despite trailing in last of the finishers in the 2m 3f Christmas Parties At Exeter Racecourse Mares' Novices' Hurdle at Exeter last week, she passed the test of completing the course.

"She jumped out and led the race which is what we wanted to do as she was hampered in her first race.

"She completed the course and ran reasonably well, but was nursed home once beaten."

Bridport Glovers celebrate anniversary

THE Bridport Branch of Yeovil Town's Green and White Supporters Club celebrated the tenth year since their inception at their annual dinner held at Highland's End Holiday Park last Friday.

Sixty-five supporters and their partners enjoyed a three-course meal before their guest Ian Hambidge, the Police Football Liaison Officer for Yeovil Town Football Club who was accompanied by his wife, outlined his role at the club. A question and answer session followed.

There was a surprise treat for the assembled with the opportunity to view and lift the League One Play-Off Trophy that Yeovil Town won at Wembley in May.

Such is the popularity of the Bridport branch that they now hire a coach instead of a minibus to travel to away games.

Founder member Tom Burt said: "When we formed the club there were just 12, but over the years, and particularly now they are playing in the Championship, the popularity has increased.

However, it means that the costs have risen from £80 to £150 for the hire, and so we would be grateful of any sponsorship to help cover our costs."

Anyone who would like to help can ring Tom on 01308 456145.

Football - Bees news

WITH STUART BROOM

Bees dump reigning champs on the bottom

BRIDPORT 3 BISHOP SUTTON 1

Toolstation Premier - att: 90

BRIDPORT came from a goal down to beat reigning Premier league champions Bishop Sutton with three goals that saw them go six games unbeaten in the league and cup.

Bridport found themselves a goal down early on. However a superb Darren Watts goal ensured they went in level at the break, and a Dan Wise penalty and rare strike from skipper Ryan Hayter, his first for more than two years, saw the Bees bag all three points.

With Hengrove Athletic winning and Slimbridge earning a point, the defeat saw The Bishops drop to the bottom of the table.

Although they have lost eight of last year's winning squad who moved to Bristol Manor Farm when manager Lee Lashenko quit in the summer, new boss Dave Payne is assembling a new exciting team.

The early minutes saw both sides score chances. Shane Evans was then involved in incidents at both ends of the pitch.

Having headed Wise's free kick just beyond the Bishop's far post, he attempted to block a right wing cross at the other end on 14 minutes. Unfortunately the ball ballooned up off his outstretched foot and fell to Moss who converted from close range.

Almost immediately Ashley Staines almost gifted them a second with an under hit back pass but Sam Filkins was quick to thwart Lance Gingell.

Chris Luke might have equalised on 19 minutes when he cut out a poor pass across the top of the visiting area, but 'keeper Lewis Coombes was out quickly and got down well to his left to parry the Bees midfielder's shot to safety.

Four minutes later he once again foiled Luke who had timed his run to Wise's left wing cross to perfection. But once again Coombes had anticipated and from point blank range acrobatically beat his firm header away.

Bridport finally got the goal their efforts deserved on the half hour with a magnificent goal from Watts.

Condliffe fed the former Dorchester midfielder standing inside the visiting centre circle who took off on a scintillating run past three opponents before rifling a 22 yard shot across Coombes and into the far corner of the net.

Within seconds of the restart Ryan Dovell almost doubled the lead but his flick header from Jamie Filkins cross flew just wide of the far upright.

A minute before the break, Moss set up Gingell down the left, but the winger hurried his shot and it flew wide of the near post.

Matt Morley flew down the left six minutes into the second half and fired in a 25 yard left footed shot that just curled wide of the far angle of the goal frame, before Dovell under pressure, couldn't get enough on his header which went wide of the far post.

Hayter then showed his defensive qualities with a magnificent tackle on Michael Purnells to prevent him getting in a telling shot.

Having quelled the early Bishop's fire, the Bees had picked their game up after equalising, and were continuing to hold the upper hand in the second half, although the visitors were still a dangerous outfit on the counter attack.

This they proved just after the hour when Moss turned quickly 15 yards out and curled the ball towards Filkins' top right corner which the university student did well to just tip over the bar.

The ball struck the stanchion attached to the angle of the post and crossbar and bounced back into play wherein Micheal Purnell pounced to force the ball over the line, but the eagle eyed officials noticed what had happened and disallowed the goal and awarded a corner which was fruitless.

When Bridport broke a minute later, Luke fed Condliffe whose shot appeared to be going just inside the far post when it hit Bishop's central defender Joseph Smith on the hand. Referee Adrian Tranter immediately signalled a penalty and Wise sent Coombes the wrong way with the spot kick.

The visitors responded immediately and Moss tried a 25-yard drive which went wide of the goal.

Condliffe wasted a good chance on 72 minutes when he picked up a quickly taken free-kick down the right, outstripped his marker as he cut in but then fired into the side netting when he might have crossed to one of three teammates available.

There was one more scare for Bridport before they made the game save.

Sam Filkins appeared unfazed by a long cross from the left touchline from Bishop's sub Joshua Bennett which he must have thought was dropping over his crossbar for a goal kick. Instead he was startled when it bounced on top of his goal and dropped down on the line before it was scrambled away.

The points were secured on 87 minutes from an unfamiliar source, when Hayter drove Luke's pass past a startled Coombes from an acute angle.

Last gasp equaliser denies Bees win

Buckland Athletic 3 Bridport 3

Toolstation Premier - 91

BRIDPORT returned from Devon with a very creditable point from Homers Heath last Wednesday.

Having lost to a first minute goal at St Mary's in the reverse fixture back in August, Bridport looked to have got revenge, but a goal in the 95th minute dashed their hopes.

Bridport took the lead inside two minutes when a good team move started by Ryan Hayter saw the ball shift to Chris Luke on the right. Ryan Dovell timed his run to Luke's cross to perfection to get in front of Rob Farkins and deliver a diving glancing header across 'keeper Kenny Griffiths and into the far corner.

Buckland equalised ten minutes later with an exquisite goal from Lucas Burgess who lofted his 20-yard shot beyond Ashley Weeks into the top right corner of the net.

The hosts then took the lead on the half hour with an equally wonderful strike from Gavin Hammon, who, faced with a sea of defenders, looped his shot into the same top corner.

Matt Condliffe brought the Bees level just before the break when Griffiths miskicked when the ball bobbed as he went to clear a back pass. The Bridport striker just beat the retreating keeper as they slid in for the loose ball to lash it into the roof of the net, but Griffiths in his effort to retrieve the situation collided with the post and had to be replaced at the interval.

Bridport regained the lead just before the hour, and what a goal it was to celebrate Dovell's 50th for the club. Controlling Matt Morley's left wing cross with his left foot, he turned all in one motion and drilled it into the far corner of the net.

Buckland turned the screw on Bridport looking for the equaliser but the defence held strong and it looked as if they had weathered the storm, but in the fifth minute of added time the hosts got the goal their second-half performance warranted.

Substitute 'keeper Liam McCauley launched a huge free-kick where Farkins got a touch. The ball went through a mass of bodies before hitting Dovell on the arm diverting it past Weeks.

Ressies crash to shock defeat

POOLE BOROUGH RESERVES 3 BRIDPORT RESERVES 1

BRIDPORT Reserves crashed to a shock defeat in this Dorset Senior Trophy tie against Poole Borough Reserves who play two divisions lower.

Bees manager Robin Townsend had no qualms about the result, but their chances were drastically reduced just after the hour when Darren Lock was sent-off for a bizarre handball incident that led to Poole's equaliser.

Despite a poor first-half performance Bridport took the lead through Gary Bulman, but from a seemingly innocuous cross into the penalty box, Lock who had already been booked, punched the ball instead of heading it clear, leaving the ref no choice but to award a penalty and dismiss him. Kyle Graham equalised from the spot.

Soon after, Borough took the lead when Rob Scadding deflected a wayward shot into the net with his chest. They completed the win when George Waring latched on to a poor Adam Sturdy back pass to fire past Billy Fleet.

Townsend said: "It was very disappointing but I can't grumble about the result, they saw us as a scalp and in the end they thoroughly deserved their victory. I think our lads thought it was going to be a walk in the park."

Commenting on Lock's moment of madness he said: "Darren couldn't explain why he did it, but it certainly gave them the boost they needed."

Thirds lose out to pitch lottery

BRIDPORT 3RDS 1 WEYMOUTH SPARTANS 2

THIRDS manager Andy Hitchcock was livid at the state of the St Mary's Playing Field pitch after losing out to league leaders Weymouth Spartans to a late goal.

"I think the pitch played a big factor in the defeat. The grass hasn't been cut since the last time we played three weeks ago and it was long then.

"Not only did it stop us playing the ball on the ground, but it was almost impossible to see the markings which were responsible for their first goal when the Spartans' centre forward took advantage with an unsporting act."

The visitors had complained about the state of the pitch beforehand, but took advantage of it when Luke Hayter shepherded the ball out of play for a goal kick. He and the Bridport defence stopped when the ball ran a yard beyond the byline, but with virtually no markings to go by, Marcus Simpson kicked the ball back into play before lashing it into the net with the referee seemingly oblivious to the situation.

"While it was poor sportsmanship to do that, I am very disappointed at the fact the grass was so long; after all we do pay for the use of the pitch."

Bridport, boosted by the inclusion of first team players Max Buckler and Adam Steele were playing with confidence against a very physical Spartans side that was hard to break down.

Ryan Gall had three good chances before the Bees equalised just before half-time. Dave Booker's header was cleared off the line but ran to Zac Hawker who blasted the ball home.

With Buckler running the show in the second-half it looked like Bridport might get all three points. But Buckler was then withdrawn to take his place on the first team bench and his presence was missed.

With play now end-to-end Gall was again thwarted with another point blank save by the goal-keeper.

But it was Spartans that snatched the points in the closing minutes when Jack Thompson's shot deflected off Ashley Walkey and rebounded to Jeb Gay to score the winner.

Hitchcock said: That's the third game in a row where we have deserved at least a point."

He was also critical about the number of players throughout the club who make themselves unavailable each week causing him selection problems.

"I don't understand some of the lads. At least six drop out every week for a variety of reasons, some genuine but many for fanciful reasons, which makes life very difficult, and then many of them turn up to watch!"

"This shows a poor attitude, and I will continue to ignore them for selection if they continue to play this game."

Uninterested Bridport pay the price

WIMBORNE MAGPIES 1 BRIDPORT U14 0

BRIDPORT came down to earth with a bump when they lost by a single goal at Wimborne.

Having started to play some of the best football in their young careers over the past three weeks, they never even looked interested in this match that got off to a bad start with no home official available to referee; Richard Middleton standing in admirably.

Maybe the delay unsettled them, but Bridport only had themselves to blame for the defeat, goal-keeper Jordan Scadding only touching the ball twice; the first to pick the ball out of the net after Wimborne's early goal, and for then for a goal kick; otherwise he was a spectator.

Maybe a few need to wake up and understand you have to earn the right to pull on a Bridport youth football shirt.

Bridport squeeze home

BRIDPORT played host to Sidmouth in their Four Rink Friendly, running out winners 76-72 overall.

It was a unique match as Sidmouth could only bring three rinks and Bridport members Pat and Roger Cowmeadow, Mike Parsons and Max Dare played as a guest rink for Sidmouth.

Dare who has represented Dorset over 50 times was on fine form early on and his four were only trailing Sylvia and Mike Fletcher, Mike Craddock and Martin Wilton 10-11 after 14 ends but a fine finish by Wilton's four gave them a 23-10 win to claim top rink award.

Brian Parker, Mary Corfield, Phil Hedges and Mike Long together with Roy Lidington, Lyn Craddock, Robin Pither and Brian Rumble were the other winning Bridport rinks 23-17 and 23-15 respectively.

Mel Hargett, Keith Jenkins, Rosie Wilton and Brian Baker were competing well to be 7-10 down after 14 ends.

But over the last seven ends their opponents scored 20 shots without reply to win 7-30.

In the County Mixed League against Moonfleet, Beryl Stark, Mel Hargett, Brian Pratt and Jenny Harding picked up two points with a 23-16 home win.

At Weymouth Mike Craddock, Sue Gentry, Liz Walker and Max Dare and the four of Lyn Craddock, Gerry Moss, Laura and Bob Taylor went agonizingly close before losing 18-19 and 23-25 respectively.

Lynch wins semi-final spot at the death

WEYMOUTH 2ND 19 DORCHESTER 2ND 21

For the second time this season Dorchester seconds travelled to play their Weymouth counterparts; this time a semi final spot in the 2nd XV shield was up for grabs; and although the outcome was the same, a strong Weymouth side kept the result in the balance till the end writes Andrew Smith.

The game started evenly and this was to be the case throughout. The away side opened the scoring when centre James Baker touched down but his own missed conversion was disappointing.

The next two scores went to the home side and it gave them the lead for the first time. Some poor discipline and good attacking intent allowed Weymouth two shots at goal which were successful; the first an impressive kick from long range.

Dorchester regrouped and set about the home line. They had a couple of chances, including a missed penalty kick, but were unable to finish and Weymouth continued to defend well.

Toward the end of the half it looked like the home team would extend their lead, but with a four-man overlap they managed to pass the ball forward.

This woke Dorchester up and they spent the last five minutes in their opponents 22. Some good defence from Weymouth kept them out however, but with the last play, Dorchester were awarded a penalty. Baker slotted this and they went into the break 8-6 up.

Both teams used the half-time to make a couple of changes and it was the home team which came out stronger.

Weymouth kept applying the pressure and Dorchester conceded another kickable penalty for the home team regained the lead 9-8.

After some more end-to-end play, Dorchester used their backs well and the ball reached left wing Jake Chislett who crashed over. Again the conversion was missed.

This is the point where Dorchester should have pressed on but Weymouth were not to lie down and kept stopping the away side while creating opportunities of their own.

Some more ill discipline allowed Weymouth three more points and there was just now a point in it.

Both teams then missed a couple of shots at goal, before Baker finally added a second penalty to move his team four points ahead.

As the game entered the last five minutes Weymouth finally scored their first touchdown of the match, and the conversion from in front of the posts meant they held a three-point lead.

Dorchester didn't panic and went in search of a winning score. When a penalty was awarded just outside the home 22, away captain Tom Evans made the bold decision to go for the corner rather than try and force extra time.

The lineup was won but they knew one mistake and it would be all over. After a couple of clean rucks, the ball went wide and the centres found full-back Lynch who dived through a small gap to score.

The conversion was missed again but it didn't matter and the ref blew his final whistle.

Unbeaten start shattered

LYTCHETT MINSTER 50 DORCHESTER 2ND 5

DESPITE a good showing in the first-half, a strong second from the home team ended Dorchester's unbeaten run writes Tomas Gower.

The early exchanges were quite even, but with Dorchester using their backs they started to make inroads.

Quick forward ball and good back play has been the away side's strength this season and it was this combination that created the first score; Rich Deakin going over. The conversion was missed and this was to be their last score.

After some good home play and poor discipline, the home team registered their first try which was converted to give them the lead.

This was extended within minutes with a simple kick at goal from some more poor

Bridport's unbeaten run extended to six matches

◆ RARITY: Skipper Ryan Hayter scored his first goal in more than two years.

BRIDPORT'S recent good run of form continued with an excellent draw at Buckland Athletic midweek, that might have been three but for a 95th minute last kick equaliser, and a workmanlike 3-1 win over reigning champions Buckland Athletic at St Mary's Field on Saturday.

The results extend the Bees recent unbeaten run to six in all competitions and means they have collected ten points from a possible twelve from the four league matches.

Reflecting first the 3-3 draw in Devon last Wednesday, manager Trevor Senior was pleased in the end with a draw despite the disappointment of conceding a last minute deflected goal.

He said: "If I was their manager I would have been disappointed if they hadn't got something out of the game, because the second-half they did cause us some problems. We did catch them on the break a few times although we didn't have too many clear cut chances."

Bridport got off to a flier with a Ryan Dovell goal inside two minutes before Buckland struck back twice with two excellent 20-yard strikes.

"Ryan's was a quality goal with a great build up, excellent cross and superb strike.

"It was fairly even after that until they scored two cracking goals, neither of which you could blame Ashley Weeks for, who had a good game, especially in the second-half."

Having regained the lead through Matt Condliffe and another great goal from Dovell, his 50th for Bridport, Buckland put the Bees under a lot of pressure.

"To be fair they had quite a bit of possession and we had to defend well and they missed a sitter from almost under the bar. We thought we had weathered the storm before they equalised with the last kick of the game."

On Saturday they hosted Buckland Athletic, who despite losing a number of the championship winning squad in the summer still posed a lot of danger.

They took a rather fortunate lead which they held until Darren Watts produced a finish to square the game, before second-half goals from Dan Wise, from the penalty spot, and a rare Ryan Hayter strike won the Bees the points.

"I don't think we played as well as we can but we still got the result. We made enough chances, and in the first-half I didn't think they created too much, it was more us making mistakes that gave them their chances really.

"They weren't the worst side we played I don't think, and with their ability to break quickly, the game wasn't over at 2-1 by any stretch.

"Sam Filkins had to scramble a couple of times, particularly the left wing cross that deceived him and hit the crossbar.

"I thought Darren Watts was outstanding. He looked strong and quick and used the ball well, didn't try to over hit it, and deservedly got the man of the match from me. It was a great goal; he always looked comfortable and bided his time and was going to put it away.

We had a fair few chances. We got into good areas; it was just our final pass; we rushed things instead of taking our time and making sure of our pass, but all in all we look quite solid at the moment.

"It was nice just to get three points again and keeps our run going. We've had two good games away from home, and we are scoring goals; that's 17 in the last six games."

On Ryan Hayter's goal, whose angled shot he admitted was meant for Ryan Dovell, Senior quipped: "I told him I thought that it was probably one of our best crosses of the game!"

◆ HALF-CENTURY: Ryan Dovell chalked up his 50th goal for Bridport
